Billy Ditch (opposite page) turned off a reminder of the beginning of another happy day. Shirley Sulzberger (on floor) and Donna Tobias found that popcorn added much to their homework. Esther Archer replaced an unruly hat on a dashing young man. Harry Alderman demonstrated one of the easiest ways to amuse oneself (solitaire). It was off to school for Kathleen Coder as soon as she bundled herself up warmly. Ted Hahn made a necessary adjustment in preparation for a happy evening. Below, Pat Honts found the funnies amusing; but Kay Stumme found her brother Paul's efforts at shaving even more so. In the cafeteria Elizabeth Evans, John Healey, and Kenny Sturms (right) even laughed over their daily task of doing the dishes for two or three hundred Muskies.

Marcia Wagner (upper left) gave her fingernails that professional look with a second coat. At the organ were Ella Mae Huff (left), Sherbie Phillips, and Jeanie Hakes having a little pre-devotions fun. Mary Ellen Dillon was at the receiving end of a very funny phone conversation. Dick Bunn may not look especially happy sewing on his football letter, but winning it was probably part of one of his happiest high school days. Harlan Phillips (left) and Ray Edgington enjoyed a boyish prank, raiding the cookie jar.

Mickie McKeown found some very interesting souvenirs in one of her long-forgotten desk drawers. Making use (upper right) of good old elbow grease was an ambitious young man, Dick Rieke. Pat McGlothlen gave the finishing touches to a well-ironed shirt before calling it a day. That gleaming smile indicated it was a happy birthday for Jeanne Oberhaus when J. R. gave her that locket. J. R. checked to see if his picture had as yet been pasted in. Jo Ann Dale's smile was probably because dishes were finished.

Conference Champs . . .

The Little Six Co-Champs fought hard through the entire season, both at home and on opponents' floors. On the opposite page, Sonny Phillips, Musky center, tipped in a basket at Ottumwa as Charles Clayvon (left), Verle Burgason (29), and Ray Hammersley (26) waited for the ball. The Bulldogs won the game played at Ottumwa, 37-24, to win a tie for the conference crown after losing to the Muskies here, 29-20. On this page, Jim Proffitt tipped one in against the Fairfield Trojans in the fieldhouse. Closely guarding him were Bob Baker (left) and Jerry Wilson. The Trojans were a 49-31 victim of the Muskies. The Purple and Gold eked out a 38-36 decision in the first match at Fairfield.

Coaches . . .

In a free evening at home the head football coach, Skip Weber (left), and the basketball mentor, Lefty Schnack, made coffee and discussed their respective co-championship teams.

... Captains

Gene Paetz (left), basketball captain, worked strenuously over a troublesome tire while Tom Bloom, captain of the football squad, took a leisurely pose in the background.

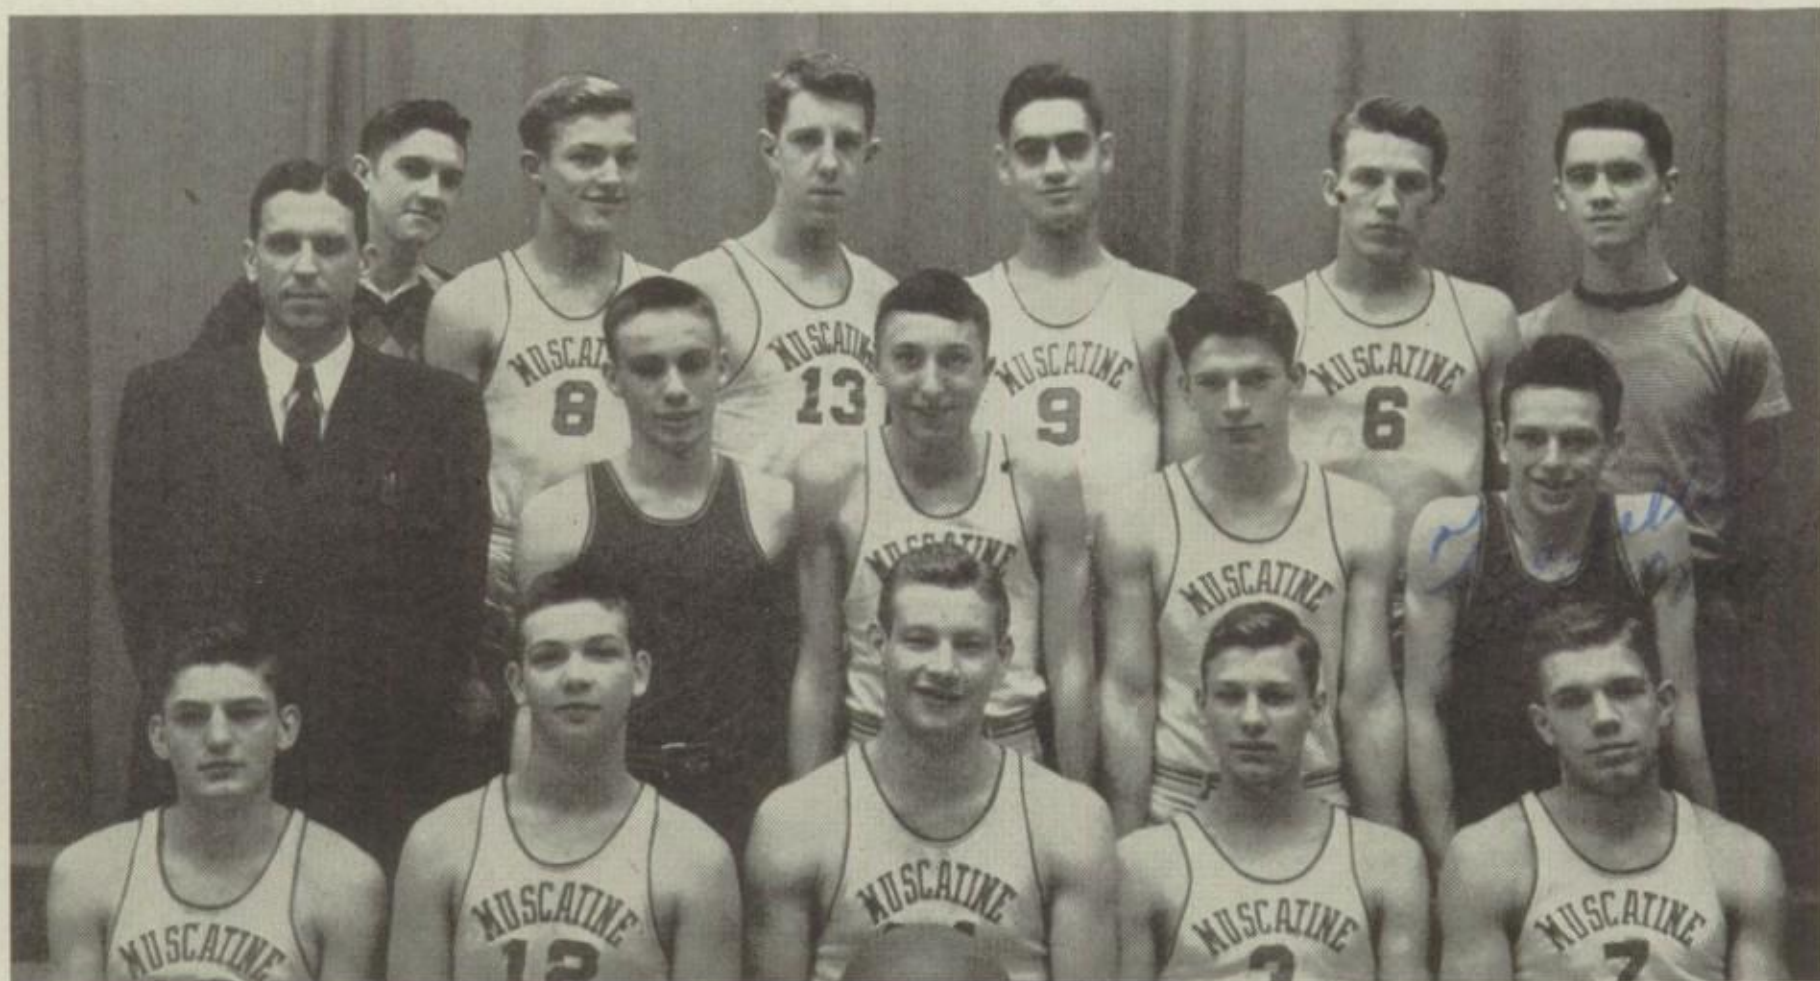

These two action shots, taken at the fieldhouse, are typical of the hard, fast play of the Muskies during the 1946-1947 season. On this page, Gene Paetz, Musky captain, went up for one of his many drive-in shots, closely guarded by Gene Hettrick, Iowa City center. Bob Beals, number 3, watched as Willis Valett came in on the play to rebound. The Purple and Gold soundly defeated the Mississippi Valley Conference champs in the season's opener, 41-20. On the opposite page, Willis Valett, ace guard, drove in for an easy lay-up while Burlington players (left to right), Riffel, Schulz, Penrose, and Larry Vennard, watched with anxiety. The Muskies won the Grayhound tilt in an overtime, 31-30. This was one of the best games on the home court this season.

Little Musky Squad Unbeaten on Home Court

An all-veteran quintet coached by Lefty Schnack this year gave Muscatine High School a seasonal record of 19 wins in 24 contests. The team had for its first six men lettermen from last year's squad. The Muskies started the season in a very impressive manner by defeating Iowa City, the defending state champs, 41-20. In the very next game the Purple and Gold disposed of the present state champs, Davenport, by a score of 34-30. The team this year had all its bad luck out of town, suffering every one of the five losses on a foreign floor. The only losses in the regular season were to Clinton, Ottumwa, Davenport, and Webster City. The Muskies beat every team which had beaten them with the exception of Webster City, a team that was scheduled only once on the Christmas trip to the North. In conference play the team won 13 while losing only 1. This record gave the Muskies a tie for the Little Six crown with Ottumwa. In tournament play the team won the district played at Muscatine by defeating University High of Iowa City and Lyons of Clinton, but they lost to Davenport, the new state champs, in the sub-state.

The six boys above were the nucleus of the team during the 1946-47 season. Top row (left to right): Gene Paetz, senior guard and captain of the squad, was given first team honors on the all-conference team and honorable mention on I.D.P.A. and Register all-state teams. Jim Proffitt, senior forward, was placed on the second all-conference team and given honorable mention on the I.D.P.A. squad. Tom Bloom, senior guard, was the spot player of this year's squad. Bottom row: Kenneth McCleary, junior forward, is the only starter returning next year. Willis Valett, senior guard, was a first team all-conference player and was given second team I.D.P.A. and fifth team Register all-state honors. Sonny Phillips, senior center, was one of the hardest fighters on the squad.

Hanson's Underclassmen Gain Two Victories

The B Squad, under the direction of Bob Hanson and Tom Bruner, came through a tough schedule with a record of two wins and four losses plus a wealth of experience and knowledge that will prove valuable in future years. The team was beaten by Wapello, Iowa City, St. Ambrose, and Reynolds, Illinois, while gaining decisions from Reynolds and Wapello. The team had a very satisfactory season, considering the fact that much of the squad was composed of freshmen. Boys who showed some promise for the A Squad next year were Andy Hibbert, Harry Lewis, Bob Jones, and John Hahn in the line, along with George Hahn, Gary Gordy, and Jim Marshall in the backfield. The outlook for next season is very bright with so much of the fine material that was shown this year returning.

Mighty Webermen Capture First Grid Title

Co-Champs of the Little Six! This was the A Squad's claim to fame for the 1946 season. Under the direction of Skip Weber and Lefty Schnack, the team was victor in six of the eight games played. The only defeat was in the first game of the season at the hands of the St. Ambrose eleven, and the only other mar on the record was a tie with Burlington in the second encounter in the schedule. From this game to the last of the season the Muskies proved themselves to be unbeatable, although they were pushed to the limit against Washington, 21-14, and Mount Pleasant, 7-2, and climaxed this drive with a top-flight performance at Ottumwa to win the title. Muskies will long remember the Ottumwa thriller because it brought home to Muscatine its first football crown.

SENIOR GRIDDERS—Top row (left to right): Willis Valett, Tom Bloom, Bob Bartenhagen, Ed Molis. Second row: Ralph Warren, Jack Dunbar, Darrell Sharar, Bob Welker. Third row: Jim Gundrum, Don Watson, Richard Thomas, Keith Kemp. Bottom row: Reginald Meyer and Bill Ostrander. Tom Bloom, in addition to receiving the Roach trophy, was elected captain of the squad and was placed on the third I. D. P. A. all-state team. Bob Bartenhagen, Ed Molis, Bob Welker, Bill Ostrander, Ralph Warren, and Willis Valett also received honorable mention on several all-state teams. In their last year of competition, these boys won high places in the Musky athletic hall of fame.

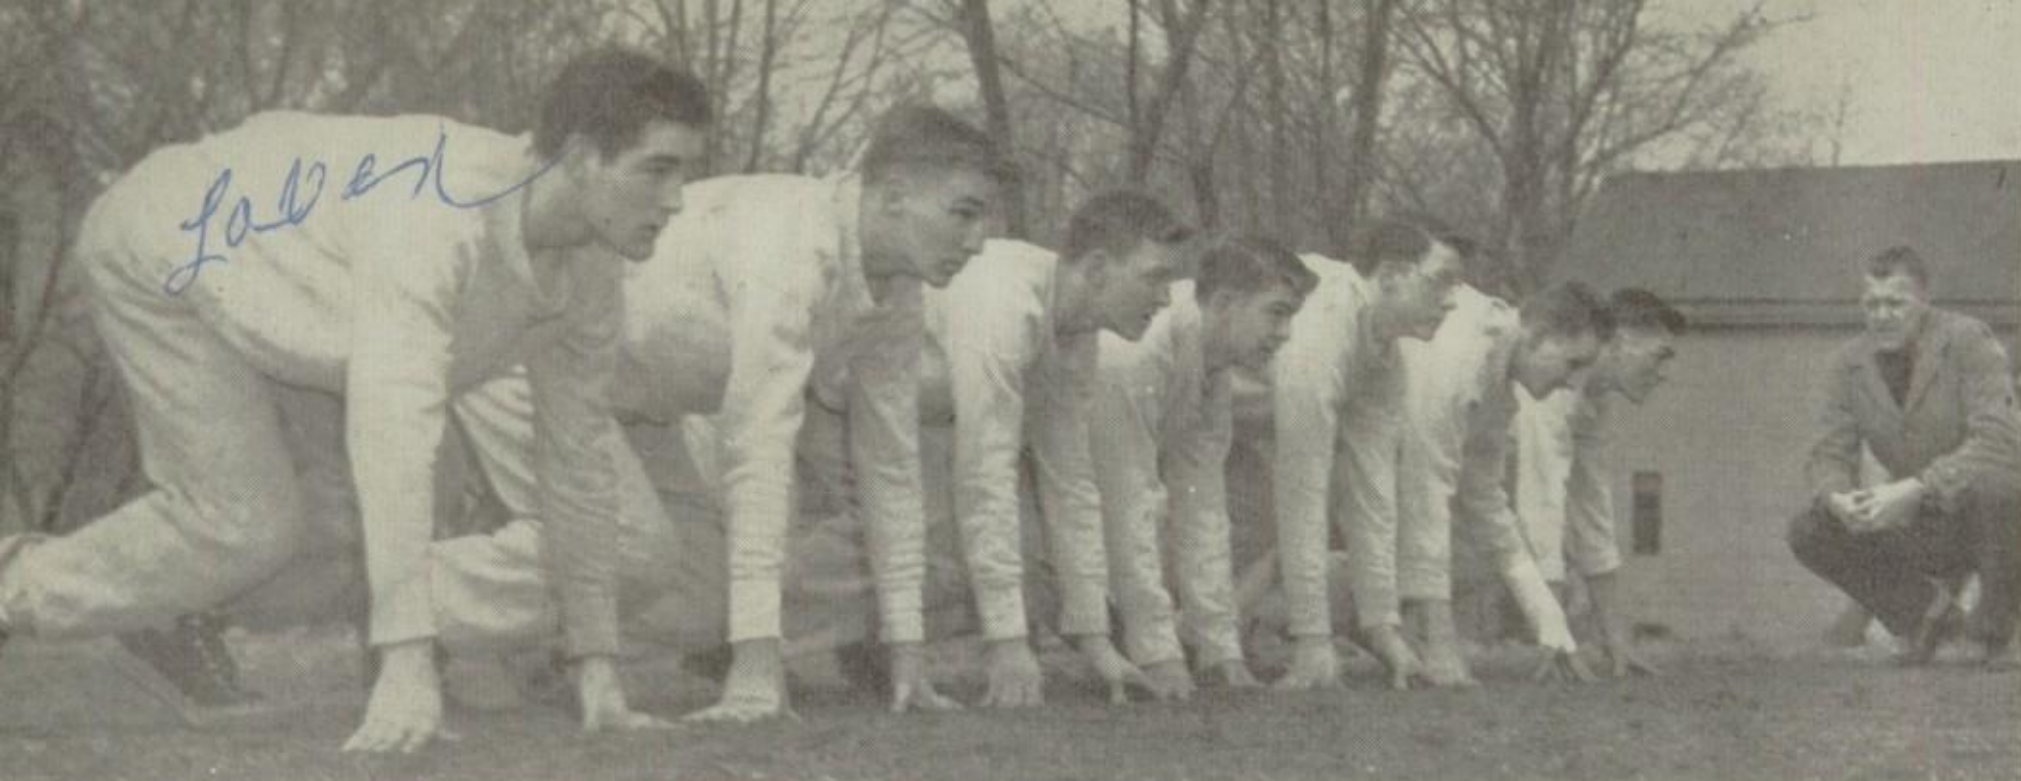

The Musky football team thoroughly enjoyed the first championship season for a Muscatine High School grid team. Below, some of the returning lettermen frolicked in the locker room after a strenuous practice. In the group were Jerry Phelps, Dick Bunn, Bill Sturms, Bill Johnson, Bob James, Kenny James, Earl Cochran, Kenny Sturms, Pete Johnson, and the student manager, Bob Herwig. On the opposite page, Don Oeter (right) and Bill Ostrander watched as Willis Valett tidied up his hair before a grid battle. In the middle photo the washermen, Daryl Kempf, Bob Welker, and Jim McKinney, got some towels ready for future needs. At the bottom of the page, Harvey Altmann, with a helping hand from a teammate, Jack Dunbar, pulled Ralph Warren's shoes off after a tiring workout.

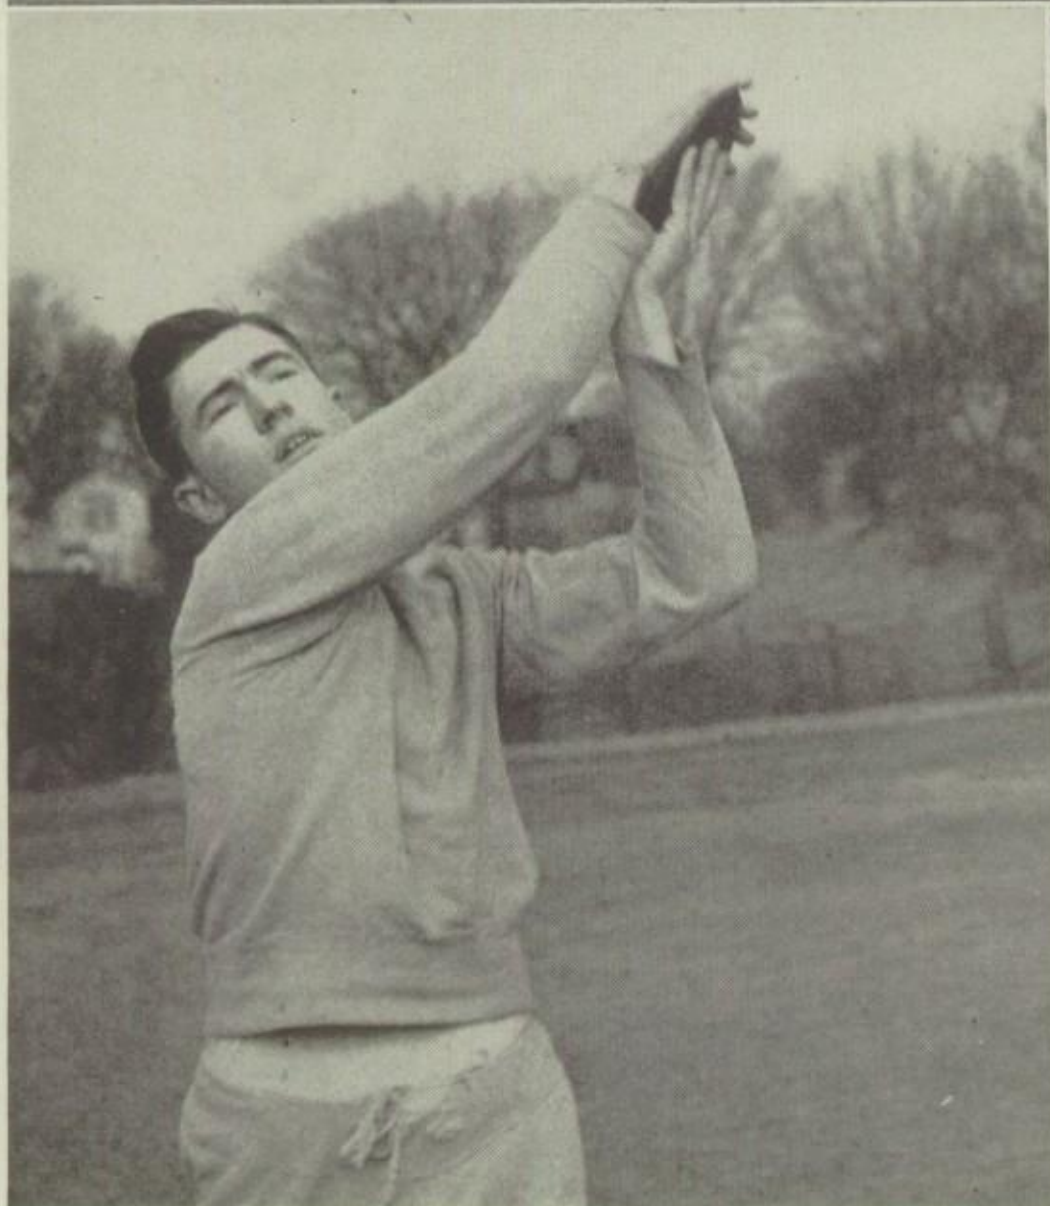

Prospects were for a successful track season this year with the return of several lettermen from last season. Pictured on this page are some of the "workhorses" who were taking early spring workouts. Preparing to dash down the straightaway were (left to right) LaVaun LaRue, Earl Cochran, Allen Messenger, George Cordwell, Bill Ostrander, Bob Highbarger, and Gene Paetz. At the end of the line preparing to start his thinclads down the cinders was Bob Hanson, track coach. The returning lettermen were (seated) John Healey, Ed Molis, Bill Ostrander, Kenny Sturms, and Sonny Phillips; (standing) Earl Cochran, Bob James, Ernie Lottman, Bob Highbarger, and Gene Paetz. These boys formed the nucleus of the strong squad which represented Muscatine this spring.

Second-Year Wrestlers Win Four Dual Meets

Competing for the second season, Muscatine wrestlers showed great improvement and won four of eight dual meets. Ralph Warren, captain of the squad, produced a fine record, winning 12 of 13 matches. His only loss was suffered in the second round of the state finals. The team won victories from Davenport, Moline, Burlington, and McKinley of Cedar Rapids. They also placed fourth in the district meet at Davenport. Ralph Warren won the district championship in the 155-pound class. One of the highlights of the season was the purchase of purple and gold uniforms.

The prospects for next season are fine in view of the fact that several A Squad men are returning. These boys are Loren Goss, Keith Bloomer, Kenneth Phelps, Earl Laws, Don Hopkins, LaVaun LaRue, Harold Miller, George Smalley, and Earl Cochran. The boys not returning are George Cordwell, Keith Kemp, Marlyn Whitmer, Reginald Meyer, and Captain Warren. In only two seasons of activity the sport has become very popular at M. H. S.

Sports Activities Reign at G. A. A. Meetings

The sports-loving girls in school found an ideal organization in the Girls' Athletic Association. Play-days and hikes furnished the members with abundant entertainment. At the regular meetings held twice a week in Jefferson Gym, the girls enjoyed a variety of sports. Lois Kracht, president; Betty Varney, vice-president; Marilyn Phelps, secretary-treasurer; and Evelyn Sommerdorf, point-keeper, were elected as this year's officers. On the opposite page are some illustrations of the different sports in which the G. A. A. members participated. Getting a drink between games of badminton were Frances Chapman (right) and Evelyn Sommerdorf. Miss Mary Culhane, gym instructor, gave Marilyn Phelps some pointers on pitching. Going up for a basketball were Marian Isaacs, Betty Varney, and Lois Kracht. Mary Altenbernd gave a volley ball a tip over the net.

Senior Officers . . .

The senior officers, Joan Sywassink, secretary-treasurer; Gene Paetz, vice-president; and Tom Bloom, president, paused to look over the situation during a stroll in Weed Park.

Representative Boy and Girl . . .

Gene Paetz, representative senior boy, got a hand with the catsup from the representative senior girl, Joan Sywassink. The student body selected this couple in February.

... Valedictorian and Salutatorian

This year's Val and Sal were confronted with a difficult problem: How to remove a bottle cap. They are Lois Stumme, Salutatorian, 3.714, and Bob Highbarger, Valedictorian, 3.718.

BETTY AYE . . . Betty joins her fellow Muskies who cherish the memory of the Musky-Ottumwa basketball games and the trip to the state finals . . . She saves some of her praises, however, for "Ghost Wanted," which in her estimation can't be topped . . . Betty prefers a trip to Mexico to college, and if she has her way her brown eyes will be viewing the sights in this "Saus American" land for two or three years after graduation.

DEWAYNE J. BEHRENS . . . Dewayne returned to M. H. S. this year after a lapse of two years in the service . . . He belonged to the Musky band before he entered the Army. Played in the drum section . . . He has happy memories of a certain band party in the dim dark past . . . Dewayne always found basketball interesting, but the state tournament at Ottumwa in '43 was especially so . . . Iowa State is his chosen college.

TOM BLOOM . . . One of the most versatile boys in the class of '47, Tom excelled both scholastically and athletically . . . During his junior and senior years he was class president, and he led the Musky gridders through the last two seasons . . . John found "Heaven on earth" on the gridiron . . . He won three letters in football and basketball and two in track . . . Earned the Bill Roach trophy . . . Dated Carla Fry.

JACQUELINE BRAASCH . . . The G. A. A. overnight hikes to Rotary Lodge won that club a vote of praise from Jackie . . . Her enjoyment of sports carried over from G. A. A. to basketball, especially out-of-town games when Muscatine won . . . Jackie hasn't decided what boy she especially enjoys dating, but she spent some time considering Swede . . . Will always have a soft spot in her heart for M. H. S. friends.

IDA BUCKLEY . . . Gray eyes, brown hair, and a peaches-and-cream complexion describe Ida . . . She spent Thursday sixth periods reading bulletin board clippings for Miss Miller's Friday quizzes . . . Her ambition is to visit Mexico . . . Muskies heard her "Number please," for she worked at the telephone office . . . She is proud of the big beautiful auditorium at M. H. S. . . . She will always remember the band at football games.

FRANCES CHAPMAN . . . Frankie seldom trod the halls without her steady, Jim Gundrum . . . Enjoyed band, and the trip to Ottumwa and Freese's half-time lectures in particular . . . Passing all her college subjects is often the topic of Fran's daydreams . . . She classes her senior year and salesmanship class with her other fond memories . . . Frances was impressed by the friendliness at M. H. S. . . . Active in G. A. A.

HARVEY ALTMANN . . . A rather quiet boy until he takes a notion to have some fun. Then Harvey can be the life of the party . . . Harvey likes to journey to Clinton, Chicago, and other places with his bosom pals, Ed Molis and Carl Tiecke . . . He has a moderate interest in girls, especially in the out-of-town variety . . . An expert with a movie projector. Thinks nothing would be more interesting than his own theater.

ANNA MAE ANDERSON . . . The excitement of a pep meeting before a game will always be one of Anna's most vivid high school memories . . . Andy was very much pleased with the efforts of the dramatics department. Rates "Ghost Wanted" definitely a "best" . . . To make a lovely woman lovelier is Anna's future aim when she becomes a beauty operator . . . The chums she has made at M. H. S. will be happy memories.

WALLACE FINLEY BEASON . . . Green eyes, brown hair, and five feet eleven are items Wally lists in his personal description . . . He is another senior who graduated with a service record. He served in the Navy Air Corps at Okinawa and earned a Motor Machinist Third Class rating . . . His outstanding high school memories are of being captain of a winning intramural basketball team and singing in the chorus.

PHYLLIS BROOKHART . . . Although the postman carried plenty of letters to St. Louis from Phil, some of the Musky boys were lucky enough to rate dates with her . . . Flip's memories of being head of furnishings department and out-of-town trips with contest plays will be her happiest . . . Because of seeing the out-of-town games with Mary Ann, she acquired a number of eighth periods and found serving them irksome.

ROBERT BARTENHAGEN . . . A former sailor who loved to play football in the tall green grass of Jefferson Field. Bart was the center of the team and enjoyed helping whip Ottumwa last fall . . . He liked assemblies as they gave him a chance to catch up on his sleep . . . Bart dated steadily with anyone . . . Bob hopes to attend some small Iowa college that is close to home . . . A husky blond with blue eyes.

KENNETH BRENDEN . . . Kenny was another of the patriotic boys who left school to enter the Navy . . . He enlisted in January of 1945 and received his medical discharge because of an ear injury . . . He likes the idea of staying home so that he can attend Muscatine Junior College . . . Of the activities he participated in, he enjoyed band most. He enjoyed basketball from the sidelines . . . Making a good living is his dream.

RHEA CHAMBERLIN . . . Rhea's active record in girls' intramural sports speaks for itself: this gal likes sports . . . Beat a drum in band. Enjoyed playing with Little Six mass band and making band trips to games . . . Rhea likes spirit of cooperation in M. H. S. . . . Another of the scarce studes who have not played hooky or served eighth periods . . . Shorter end of the Chamberlin twins, Ruth and Rhea . . . Has a cute grin.

ROMA CONNOR . . . One of the country lasses that came in daily to attend M. H. S., Roma would like to continue her country residence in a small bungalow after graduating . . . Holds admiration for F. F. A. and its hayrack rides . . . Roma spends much of her time writing letters and a portion of her allowance sending them to a certain Pfc . . . F. H. A., Shook's English class, and the basketball games furnished happy memories.

ELEANOR COLLITZ . . . Energetic Miss Collitz with the enormous dimples warbled away in mixed chorus practices . . . She had fun at Fort Madison on the chorus trip . . . Plans on Wartburg College . . . She will remember Miss Smith's algebra III class . . . She was one of the brighter studes . . . She's proud of morning devotions . . . Basketball games and the state tournament gave her a thrill . . . Earned music letter.

HAROLD S. DAUT . . . Graduation for this tall blond had to wait on the completion of nineteen months of service in the Armed Forces . . . He entered service on December 6, 1944, and received his training at Great Lakes and San Diego . . . He spent eleven months at Guam, Navy 926 . . . After his discharge on July 20, 1946, Harold enrolled at A. I. C. in Davenport . . . His goal, a C. P. A. diploma, requires a two-year course.

HELEN JANE DANIELS . . . Helen delighted in selling hot dogs at the Fun Festival this year . . . As chairman of the food committee, she was most active in F. H. A. . . . Takes pride in telling people about the Musky assemblies . . . One of four girls who took time from study one day. Consequences, twelve eighth periods . . . Becoming a nurse is one of Helen's dreams of the future. Her personality would be an asset.

MARILYN DANZ . . . Variety was the spice of Marilyn's life. She had three different jobs in dramatics alone: actress, prompter, business manager . . . Seldom saw Keith Kemp (not without her, that is) . . . Marilyn enjoyed a major dramatics letter, Thespians and Speech Arts memberships, chorus letter, but especially Quill and Scroll . . . Blondie got a thrill out of watching Keith play football and being backstage.

RUTH ANGELINE CHAMBERLIN . . . Nice smile, brown eyes, brown hair, and big dimples—that's Ruthie . . . Often seen ushering for various programs . . . Thought a lot of Miss Jericho's sociology class . . . Ruth was very proud to march up on the stage and get her diploma with the class of '47 . . . This quiet miss has visions of a peaceful future spent in a small white house . . . Ruthie had much fun at F. H. A. meetings.

CECIL CRIGER . . . Cecil is a studious fellow who likes to work . . . He took typing and shorthand in his junior year, and while serving in the Navy he is doing office work . . . He played the saxophone while he was in the high school band . . . Being very athletic, he went out for track in the spring . . . Before entering the Navy he worked part time at Glatsteins' . . . Cecil plans to go to college and study law.

GEORGE CORDWELL . . . George was wrapped up in wrestling. He Best of his class Yes grappled two years in high school in the 135 lb. class. He enjoyed wrestling because the competition was equal and man to man. He starred particularly in the meet of the season with Burlington, where he pinned his man in 35 seconds . . . George will always remember the Musky-Bulldog games . . . He has a shock of brown hair, green eyes, and a salty grin.

FLORINE COZAD . . . All the assemblies, Miss Jericho's classes, and working in the cafeteria are all memories that mean a lot to Flo . . . She believes Muskies should be proud of the splendid cafeteria and the good food served there . . . Flo is glad she joined F. H. A. . . . It was interesting and she learned a lot . . . Flo would like to take some time to travel all over the U. S., and then maybe to some foreign countries.

JO ANN DALE . . . Jo's job (as food committee chairman) was keeping the members of F. H. A. fed . . . She'll never forget the time she had getting ready for the Fun Festival . . . Jo Ann will never regret the time she played hooky and served twelve eighth periods . . . Jody will always be thankful she was one of the lucky ones to get to the Ottumwa game in '45 . . . Traveling and getting married constitute her future plans.

JOHN DAVIS . . . John is a rather quiet chap with wavy blond hair and pretty blue eyes. He attended basketball and football games regularly . . . One of his memories connected with basketball is the Muscatine-Ottumwa game in '45 . . . He thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Shook's English class, but says he was glad when graduation came . . . John served in the Marines for over a year and spent most of that time in China.

DOLORES DAVIS . . . Her high school life will always be rated as tops by Dode . . . Although she was an M. H. S. cheerleader, she managed to attend St. Mathias games—reason, N. H. . . . She got many a thrill from the Davenport and Ottumwa games . . . Being a teacher holds an attraction for Dode . . . She was blessed with naturally curly hair . . . One of the few times Dolores could be found without chewing gum was at chorus.

ELOISE DAVISON . . . Is familiar to the play-goers as a saucy little actress . . . Spent many nights studying scripts and writing to Wes Carter . . . El received a superior rating at Coe College for acting . . . Eloise had many good times on contest play trips . . . Can boast of two dramatics letters . . . Davenport games are outstanding memories connected with her favorite sport, basketball . . . El plans to have fun traveling.

MARY ELLEN DILLON . . . After plugging through calls for a year or so as a telephone operator, Mary Ellen will start thinking of getting married . . . Collected dues as treasurer of F. H. A. her junior year. Pounded gavel as president during her senior year . . . Working in the office, the M. H. S. song, trip to state, and the Little Six basketball record all add up to happy memories . . . Her lovely dark hair adds much to her beauty.

MARY PATRICIA DOLLMAN . . . Pat boarded the bus with the band and made the trips to Ottumwa. Incidentally, she says she had gobs of fun . . . Her lively laugh livened up many band activities, which she enjoyed attending . . . The Musky team at state tournament was a dream come true for Mary. The gal likes basketball . . . Pat was very much impressed at the large school when she transferred from Letts High.

JACK DUNBAR . . . If he has blue-green eyes, brown hair, and about medium height, that's Jack . . . Candy is one of the best-looking boys of the senior class . . . He could frequently be seen out on the gridiron playing right tackle . . . If not there, he could be found dating a certain girl named Pat . . . This year's football team, Hawkeye Boys' State, and winning football letters will be some of Jack's memories in years to come.

IVAN VIRGIL FAHY . . . Whitey was definitely the best soda jerk in the class of '47 . . . He took time off from this job, however, to attend many out-of-town games . . . Ivy claims Tom Bruner's math class was tops . . . Hopes to go to college and become a commercial artist, but jokingly says he'll probably end up as a sign painter . . . He also stood in cafeteria line with other Hi-Y boys every other Wednesday and joined in the fun.

DONALD DAY . . . Don was tagged with quite a nickname, Daisy June . . . He was often found in a dark room (developing pictures) or trying desperately for a good action shot . . . The flashbulbs were really popping the night of the football game at Ottumwa, a very thrilling game . . . Don is still talking about tournament days . . . One of the well-dressed men of tomorrow and today, he plans to attend Iowa State College.

KATHLEEN DODDS . . . Sweet, shy, pretty, with l-o-o-ng eyelashes—this is Kathy . . . Her oh-so-soft voice could be heard reeling off French almost any first period . . . She spent her outside time at the library, where she got experience towards making her dream come true. She hopes to go to Wisconsin U. for a librarian's course . . . She will remember her senior year as the most pleasant and basketball games as most thrilling.

RICHARD EICHELBERGER . . . Ike was one of L. B. Hoopes's standbys . . . He was secretary, reporter, and finally president of F. F. A. . . . Dick's fine work in this organization will help him in his chosen field of farming . . . His greatest thrill was at the 1945 state tournament, but days when Mr. Hoopes was not in class ran a close second . . . Surely he was kidding when he said "Girls scare me." . . . A mischievous lad.

DONNA EVANS . . . By working at the information desk at Bellevue Hospital, Donna acquired a yen to be a nurse. She will go to Kansas City, Missouri, to study for said profession . . . Donna had much fun at F. H. A. meetings . . . This blonde had fun on all her dates . . . Donna was very happy when she could claim thirty-two credits . . . She had fun in one of her favorite pastimes, talking . . . Basketball and popcorn rated.

ELIZABETH EVANS . . . Could be seen every noon washing dishes and sorting silverware for many hungry Muskies . . . Elizabeth is a basketball fan and especially remembers the '45 state contest . . . Helped the Auroran raise money by selling candy and cokes at the games . . . Miss Duglar's biology class will be a favorite memory for years to come . . . Likes to write, and consequently got a thrill out of her stories in the Auroran.

CECELIA FERGUSON . . . Fergie spent most of her spare time putting her acting ability to good use on the M. H. S. stage . . . She says she is proud of the Musky auditorium . . . The "Gay 90's Revue" is one of her happiest memories in her four-year dramatic career . . . Cec lost her voice many times cheering the Muskies on to victory . . . Cecelia plans to go to nurses' training school, where she hopes to fulfill all her dreams.

GEORGE FIGGINS . . . This lad ran a race to graduate before the Army got him, but the Army won. George plans to serve his hitch with the rest of the doughboys, and then he hopes to settle down on a farm . . . A wrestling enthusiast, he also liked the fun in Mr. Hoopes's room when Mr. Hoopes wasn't there . . . George got a thrill out of the F. F. A. trip to Kansas City, where the group attended a national F. F. A. convention.

ROBERT FISHER . . . Bob was a loyal band member for four years, and in that time he became quite a trumpeter. That "lights out" football game at Ottumwa in 1945 stands out in his memories of his band activities . . . He was also present at the '45 state basketball tourney and remembers well Charlie Mason's winning bucket against Ottumwa . . . Fish plans to enter M. J. C. and later become a radio engineer . . . Likes Shook.

JOHN FOLSOM . . . Speed could have very easily been his nickname. John wore out his shoe leather between Leroy Street and high school . . . He was honored by being chosen president of Hi-Y during his senior year and also ad manager of the Auroran . . . Archie's class was one of his favorites . . . Handsome's talent was arguing with people (in a friendly way, of course) . . . John gave all the girls a "break."

VERNA FREESE . . . To live happily ever after is Vern's idea of an ideal future . . . Will always remember being candidate for homecoming and homemaking queens . . . Had much fun in connection with Hi-Tri, especially being president and attending conference at Dubuque . . . Verna greatly appreciated F. F. A. and the hayrack rides it sponsored . . . A member of chorus and a lover of sports, she would love a nickname.

VINCENT GAETA . . . An ex-G.I. who helped beat the Germans and then came back to beat the books at M.H.S. . . . Vince was a colorful addition to the school hall-walkers. He liked conversation, and he conversed with his share of girls . . . An ardent football fan, he liked to see the Muskies' opponents bite the dust . . . Vince enjoyed Gus Shook's English . . . A transfer from St. Mathias, he would like to be an engineer.

CARLA FRY . . . Peppy, cute, and fun-loving is Carla . . . Tom Bloom was her chief escort during her senior year. Perhaps this fact accounts for her liking football . . . Carla will always heave a sigh when she thinks of the basketball tournaments she attended while supporting the team as cheerleader . . . Vice-president of her freshman class, secretary-treasurer of her junior class, and an attendant to homecoming queen.

MARGARET VIOLA GRITTON . . . Margaret or Marjorie? This problem is one many Muskies pondered when greeting this lass or her sis in M. H. S. halls . . . Margaret shares not only her twin's brown hair and eyes, but her nickname, Twin . . . Margie chooses "Ghost Wanted" and the auditorium for favorite memories . . . Added pals gave added sparkle to her senior year . . . Missionary work holds future possibilities.

PHYLLIS FUNCK . . . Along with a lot of other Muskies, Phil's favorite was basketball . . . She was a member of Hi-Tri and Future Homemakers . . . The interesting meetings of F. H. A. were of special delight to her . . . To be a successful interior decorator is her ambition . . . She would like to attend Muscatine Junior College for a year, but after that she is undecided . . . Phyllis was proud of this year's teams.

MARJORIE GRITTON . . . Part two of the Gritton twins is a young miss called Marjorie. Twin is from her head to her toes every bit as bashful as her sis—plus one-half inch . . . Marjie insists the M. H. S. cafeteria is second to none—ditto "Ghost Wanted" . . . The crystal ball reveals a stenographer's career headed in her direction . . . Like many fellow '47ers, Marjorie awards her blue ribbon to her senior year at M. H. S.

DALE GIRLS . . . One of the hustlingest boys in M. H. S.—that phrase might describe Dale, who seldom ever went anywhere at less than a gallop . . . He used his energy and patience as student manager of the band, and received a letter as just compensation . . . Sports memories include the famous "lights out" game at Ottumwa and the '45 state tournament . . . Dale hopes to be a Mississippi river-boat pilot.

EDNA GROTHE . . . Like many other Muskies, Eddie will never forget going to Ottumwa during her sophomore year to see the game, but for a different reason: She didn't get in! . . . Considers spending half an hour for twelve mornings with Bob Hanson a pleasant memory. In this case, crime (hooky) paid . . . Edna and her cornet made out-of-town band trips and came home tired but happy . . . Has hopes of being a secretary.

JOYCE MARIE GRENSING . . . A business course is the requirement that the college of Joyce's choice must have . . . Enjoyed Hi-Tri and Commercial Club most . . . When shopping, Joyce decides on something green nine out of ten times . . . Her senior year was her favorite . . . The homemaking festival of '45 is one of her favorite memories . . . This cheerful little brown-haired senior is attracted by the West and ranches.

GRETCHEN GUENTHER . . . Wearing the red and black of the M. H. S. band, Gret played bassoon at the many band appearances . . . She was the proud possessor of the first bassoon chair at the '46 Little Six band festival . . . Gret loved to make trips: band, basketball, and football . . . Gretchen chirped away on the school song—her favorite Musky tradition . . . Hi-Tri, Muskettes, Amicae, F. H. A., and Curia Regia member.

MARTHA JEAN HAKES . . . Jeanie should be complimented for her radio work. She read daily devotions and also slaved away on the weekly radio programs over KWPC . . . Hakesie's biggest thrill was winning a first at the state radio speaking contest . . . Basketball tournaments and Hi-Tri will hold a soft spot in Jean's heart . . . Classmates will remember the two pieces she composed for the Fun Festival . . . A talented Musky.

JOHN HEALEY . . . At noon behind the counter in the cafeteria Kaboom could usually be seen slinging plates in one direction and trays in another . . . His big thrill came when he lettered in track . . . This boy could really heave the discus . . . College plans include Texas A. & M., where he can get petroleum engineering . . . He's proud of the friendly attitude of the teachers in M. H. S. . . . His quick wit livened up many a classroom.

LORRAINE HEINKEL . . . Pep Club, F. H. A., G. A. A., and Hi-Tri kept Lorraine a busy girl . . . To be an ideal wife is Lorraine's greatest wish . . . Going to beauty school at Davenport will satisfy her, however, for the time being . . . Thought going to out-of-town games fun . . . She thinks the homemaking rooms are definitely something to be proud of . . . Will remember graduation as a thrilling moment . . . Beau—Eldon Sturms.

NANCY HINE . . . Nancy cashed pay checks earned clerking at Meerdink's (lucky girl) for much loved "spending money" . . . Nance will long remember many exciting moments she spent watching the powerful Musky cagers . . . Justly proud of the contents of the trophy cases . . . Helping take care of the library proved to be one of her most interesting jobs . . . Posed for Hi-Tri and Muskettes group pictures besides the one of chorus.

RAYMOND HETZLER . . . Ray was one of Mr. Hoopes's reliables . . . He specialized in F. F. A. work and had much fun in doing it . . . Hetz was one of those farmers who always had a car, and he used it to pick up girls and other pals . . . A senior who felt better when he had his diploma in his hand, Ray looked forward to having a farm of his own and a few little farmers . . . He will be a worthwhile addition to any community.

BETTY GROTT . . . Bets has ambitions like many other seniors of a future life of wedded bliss. She has definite proof in the form of a diamond . . . Thinks it would be fun to plan and decorate her own home . . . Enrolling in business school at Davenport is her idea of a profitable summer . . . Betty was always ready for Curia Regia and Commercial Club meetings and basketball games . . . Combed tangles out of long hair.

JIM GUNDRUM . . . Tiny made a husky tackle for the Musky football team . . . His biggest thrill was the Ottumwa football game this year . . . Jim enjoyed the state tournament in his sophomore year except the night he spent on a park bench for lack of a room . . . By working at Richard's Meat Market, he can date his steady, Frances Chapman, more often . . . Hopes to attend State University of Iowa because it's close to home.

DONNA HAMMER . . . Lefty is another member of the dramatics rooting seniors, for all-school plays, especially . . . She reserves some of her praises, however, for the basketball team . . . Donna got a big kick out of being an underclassman and will return to those ranks as an M. J. C. freshman next year . . . Commercial club was a favorite with Buddy because of her interest in a secretarial career . . . Thinks geometry is tops.

ALAN HATHAWAY . . . A big boy in the thick of things at M. H. S. . . . Falstaff blew on a trombone in the band. He made an impressive figure in his uniform . . . Enjoyed attending state tournament in '45 . . . One of few students to admire the school flagpole . . . Alan would like to attend Muscatine Junior College and then play for Tommy Dorsey—maybe . . . This blue-eyed blond enjoyed watching the Musky basketball team.

ROBERT HAZEN . . . He is known as Smoky to his buddies, but otherwise this active lad is called Bob . . . Bob took special pride in the Musky basketball teams and particularly enjoyed the 1945 state tournament finals . . . His most pleasant high school memory is of the dreams he had while sleeping in class . . . Bob plans to study engineering at Iowa State . . . His dream of the future is to own a beautiful new car.

ROBERT HIGHBARGER . . . When Creepy took chemistry in his senior year, Mr. Archambault had him write textbooks for the class; that's a joke, but the A's Bob earned were not . . . He was valedictorian, captain and excellent dash man in track, a stand-out on the debate squad, and an officer of N. F. L. and Curia Regia . . . Bob plans to study chemistry at Northwestern University . . . Doris Crow completes this couple.

RICHARD HUBBLE . . . Dick was one of the busiest boys of the senior class . . . If he wasn't acting in a play, he was serving eighth periods or walking a girl down a hall . . . This tall, good-natured lad was a faithful follower of the basketball and football teams, especially to Ottumwa . . . Dick is a talented dancer, and he gave all the girls a chance while he was in high school . . . Enjoyed Hi-Y stags and noon lunch meetings.

ROSALIE HUTT . . . You generally saw Rosie wreathed in smiles . . . She is also famous for her giggle . . . Red (by virtue of her gleaming locks) had a wonderful time in dramatics . . . An actress and prompter, she led a gay life on stage . . . Basketball games and knowing the boys who went to state gave her a thrill . . . Wants to go to California for a pleasure trip and then begin training for a career as an air hostess.

RICHARD JAHNKE . . . Dick was a lively transfer from New York City in his junior year . . . He's glad M. H. S. halls aren't one-way traffic as they were in New York . . . Donkey wore a football uniform and played dual role of right guard and left half-back . . . One of the more versatile lads who had no trouble portraying characters in dramatics . . . No one will forget his friendly manner and sense of humor . . . M. J. C. plans.

DARYL D. KEMPF . . . Not tall, but definitely dark and handsome—that's Daryl . . . He returned from Uncle Sam's Army to manage this year's football squad . . . The Little Six championship was his greatest thrill, but he'll long remember the football banquet . . . Muscles earned a student manager's letter in football . . . He hopes to attend a watch repairer's college in Peoria, Illinois . . . Was often seen with Jo Ann Hallmark.

VIRGINIA ISAACS . . . Virg is justly proud of her clean record—no eighth periods! . . . Worked backwards by returning to junior high this year (as office secretary) . . . Virginia had gobs of fun working sixth periods as head of costumes crew . . . She enjoyed expressing her imagination . . . Is proud of morning devotions . . . Remembers trying to get rooms for the Ottumwa tournament. She enjoyed Mr. Messenger's jokes.

HENRY KOPF . . . A chemical engineering course at Iowa State will take much of Henry's concentration in the near future . . . He was one of the quiet boys in the senior class, but he enjoyed his basketball along with the noisiest . . . Among Henry's best-loved moments were those spent traveling to see the Muskies beat Ottumwa . . . Henry also enjoyed playing intramural basketball in the noon tournaments carried on by Schnack.

MARY ESTHER HOCKE . . . If you're looking for a short, cute, blue-eyed blonde, Mary will fill the bill . . . Head of make-up crew and circulation manager for the Auroran her senior year . . . Received Quill and Scroll honors as a junior . . . One of her habits, blushing prettily, is exercised when anyone mentions Bob, a Minnesota friend . . . A cheerleader last three years . . . Mary was secretary-treasurer of her freshman class.

ELLA MAE HUFF . . . Studes of M. H. S. remember Huffy sending out the music over morning devotions . . . She also played the "assembly promenade" while Muskies sought seats for the programs . . . Quite a musician, Ella Mae was loyal to the chorus all four years . . . Vital statistics: dark hair and brown eyes . . . Wants to be a teacher in a country school . . . Plans on M. J. C. and I. S. T. C. . . . Often seen with Dick Bunn.

BEVERLY JOHNSON . . . Blue-eyed, brown-haired Beverly backed our teams to the nth degree . . . All five feet four of her tingled with joy each time the Musky cagers racked up a victory over O. H. S. . . . Bev thinks art school would be a satisfactory way to spend some "after graduation" time . . . Added her "heres" to those of others at Commercial Club, Hi-Tri, and F. H. A. . . . Bev saves some of her praise for Shook.

JUANITA KLEBE . . . Juanita is another Musky basketball fan, and the games with Davenport stand out in her memory of this sport . . . Her name was on the roll call of Hi-Tri and Curia Regia, and she wrote minutes for the latter . . . Girls' chorus also claimed her as a member . . . Her plans for the future include a trip to South America . . . Nita would like to attend Northwestern University . . . She enjoyed visiting.

MARY ANN JOHNSON . . . Trips to Wilton rate top billing in Johnnie's diary . . . Mary's pretty brown eyes viewed many of the basketball games both in and out of town . . . Homecoming was a super invention in her estimation . . . Maisie climaxed her Auroran career as assistant editor of '47 yearbook . . . Ad manager and Quill and Scroll in junior year . . . Hi-Tri and Curia Regia furnished her with entertainment.

KEITH KEMP . . . As one of the muscular lads of the class, Keith used his strength playing tackle on the football squad . . . Beating Ottumwa was his happiest memory in football . . . Always seen escorting Marilyn Danz through the halls . . . Used his acting talent in several school plays . . . After attending college, Keith has the ambition of being a lawyer . . . Member of Hi-Y and faithful rooter at all basketball games.

JOYCE KING . . . This country lassy warbled away in chorus . . . The Little Six chorus festival last year at Ft. Madison is one of her most pleasant memories connected with chorus . . . Another rabid basketball fan, Joyce yelled extra loudly at the Otumwa games . . . She packed her bags and attended the F. H. A. conference at Ames last summer . . . She'd like to own a restaurant, but claims it's just a dream.

LOIS KRACHT . . . Girls' sports claimed most of Lois's interests . . . She was a member of G. A. A. for four years, being vice-president of the club as a sophomore and president during her junior and senior years . . . Other clubs to which she belonged were F. H. A., Amicae, and Hi-Tri . . . Earning her state G. A. A. pin as a mere sophomore is Lois's biggest thrill . . . Hopes to play on a professional girls' basketball team.

WILLIAM LAMB . . . This talented lad spent much of his time drawing cute sketches on anything he could get hold of. He dreams of being a cartoonist with Walt Disney . . . Heartily believes in seniors getting off the last week of school . . . A transfer from Wilton, Bill thought the student body at M. H. S. enormous . . . He spent many happy hours playing third in intramural baseball . . . Plans on S. U. I. . . . Quiet.

ILETA LEE . . . Muskies will remember her light brown naturally curly hair . . . She won a letter for work in mixed chorus . . . Ileta claims having chorus sixth period saved her finger nails many a chewing session . . . The great success of Jefferson gym dances met but definitely with Ileta's praises . . . Lee-Lee wouldn't swap the swell bunch of friends she made at M. H. S. for anything . . . Liked the music festival at Ft. Madison.

ERNEST LOTTMAN . . . Wrestling was Ernie's favorite sport—winning his match at the Maquoketa meet will never be forgotten . . . Ernest served as an officer in both Hi-Y and F. F. A. . . . He received a letter in track for his efforts in spring training . . . Ernie could easily be called the life of the party—his sense of humor was always available . . . If he had ever been caught daydreaming, it would have been about owning a farm.

BOB McMAHON . . . Mac is a short, active boy who enjoyed Hi-Y right along with the rest of the guys . . . Bob took pride in the Musky basketball team . . . His most pleasant memory is graduation, but he would add next to this what all Muskies dream about: winning the state championship . . . When he isn't working at the V and W sandwich stand, he is running around with the Woodlawn gang . . . Bob plans to retire early.

ROSEMARY KING . . . During part of her senior year Rosemary worked at Ann's Cafe . . . She answered roll call in Amicae in her freshman year and in F. H. A. in her junior year . . . Since one of her hobbies is reading, she really enjoyed and appreciated Mr. Shook's English literature class . . . After graduating she plans to take a teacher's course in college and hopes that some day she can visit Mexico and learn the customs.

MARVIN KOLPACK . . . A handy man in M. H. S., Marv could do almost anything. He played B Squad basketball and football and was a member of the band . . . Marv got a big thrill out of journeying to the 1945 basketball finals in Jack Gordon's '27 Chevy . . . He enjoyed chem lab with his fellow scientists . . . Marvin plans to attend Iowa U, make a couple million, and retire . . . Dated Hack Lawrence steadily.

LUDWIG JOHANNES LENZ . . . Ludy was one of the tallest boys in the senior class . . . He voiced fine opinions of Musky basketball teams, but especially liked the 1945 state runner-up team . . . Strangely enough, he claims his most pleasant high school memory is of a Hi-Y stag . . . John plans to enter Iowa State in 1947, and, if plans go well, he'll graduate in 1951 as an engineer. . . . He says he goes steady with Whitey Meyer.

PETER LOHR . . . Pete was the pianist for the Musky swing band. Says his happiest memory is playing for the homecoming dance . . . He was active in dramatics and lists Thespians as one of his favorite clubs . . . Pete liked basketball and especially the state tournament at Des Moines . . . Many Muskies will remember Pete's outstanding ability as a magician . . . Pete plans to go to college and dreams of cruising around the world.

PHYLLIS LONGSTRETH . . . Dark hair, green eyes, cheerful—that's Phil . . . She spent most of her spare time in the homemaking department . . . Phyllis went to Davenport as an F. H. A. representative and won't forget the good times she had . . . Phil also enjoyed Davenport-Musky basketball games . . . She thinks all Musky students should be proud of the M. H. S. homemaking department . . . Jack Mercer is definitely her favorite.

BETTY McCLEARY . . . Blue-eyed Bet has taken homemaking for four years . . . She likes to sew and makes many of her own clothes . . . She dates Walt Naber steadily . . . Betty especially enjoyed the C. E. Jones assemblies . . . In her junior year she was on the make-up crew in dramatics . . . She liked gym class and enjoyed playing basketball . . . One could see Betty's sunny smile at the Palace popcorn shop.

EFFIE MARTIN . . . Effie's blue eyes (accompanied by lovely long lashes) were kept busy reading notes (music notes) along with the other glee club members . . . Trotting out Cedar Street on field trips was fun to her. Biology class rated as her favorite . . . Another member of the ever popular F. H. A. . . . Ringing up sales at a local five-and-ten earned her a well-liked item—money . . . A blush often adorns Effie's face.

PAUL MILLER . . . A six-footer and a quiet boy, Paul was a valuable asset to M. H. S. . . . He played a horn in the band and enjoyed trips to Ottumwa with them . . . He was one of the smartest and best-looking senior boys . . . He was a loyal F. F. A. member . . . Paul plans to attend M. J. C. next year because of the convenience it offers . . . He took special pride in the high school auditorium and liked to watch games.

ESTHER MONTGOMERY . . . Blue eyes, brown hair, and five feet two inches tall are items which describe Esther . . . Transferred to M. H. S. from Wilton Junction . . . The bigness of the school impressed her most . . . Belonged to Future Homemakers of America . . . Dreams of living successfully with her girl friend in their new apartment . . . Spent her noon hours in the cafeteria . . . Works at Cohn's when not at school.

JEANNE OBERHAUS . . . Obie earned her dramatics letter by slaving away over furnishings on the stage crew . . . A transfer from St. Mary's, Jeanne was much impressed by M. H. S. assemblies . . . Her enthusiastic support of the basketball team was fostered by a certain forward, namely J. R. Proffitt . . . Another Thespian trooper, Hi-Tri member, lover of the school song . . . Obie has plans for attending junior college.

DONALD OETER . . . When Kraut came down the hall it was hard to miss seeing him—six feet one of smiling man is easy to see anywhere . . . Don played an end on the football team as a junior and senior and was a B Squad center in basketball . . . He was an ardent Hi-Y member and enjoyed attending Hawkeye Boys' State . . . Kraut liked to watch his buddy, Ralph Warren, tie his opponents in knots.

JAMES FRANCIS MARTIN . . . This senior boy will travel to Iowa State at Ames next year and start slaving over a mechanical engineering course . . . He considers the F. F. A. club and the F. F. A. equipment tops . . . A football fan deluxe, James can claim attendance at most M. H. S. battles . . . He spent his time outside of school working in a filling station, where he gained valuable experience . . . Blue eyes, brown hair.

TWYLA MAEGLIN . . . Many times T. J. could be found after school in a local record store with two of her pals, Pete and Baby . . . Twyla is well known in dramatic circles around M. H. S. and has been in plays since her freshman year . . . Her active laugh was well used during the meetings of her favorite club, Thespians . . . An attractive blonde with green eyes . . . Twyla plans to attend J. C. . . . Always has fun.

SHIRLEY MILLER . . . If medals were given out for school spirit, Shirley would rate a big flashy one. This slim little blonde made a classy looking baton twirler strutting in front of the M. H. S. band . . . Dislikes her nickname, Skinny, given her by her beau (Dick Hubble) . . . Shirl is the lucky owner of a very complete basketball scrapbook boasting clippings and pictures of the past four seasons . . . Attendant to homecoming queen.

LYLE MEYER . . . This senior boasted of having the toughest old Chevrolet around, if not the nicest. He used it to good advantage in journeying on Hi-Y trips and picking up girls . . . Lyle broke dishes with the best of them at the cafeteria and claimed he put that extra something into the soup . . . He is undecided about his future, but he might become a sailor and have a girl in every port . . . He went steady with Darlene Sizek.

HAROLD MILLAGE . . . Hal was often seen wearing a red and black uniform and playing a French horn . . . He enjoyed his trip to Ottumwa with the band . . . Was proud of the Musky football team's being co-champs of the Little Six in '46 . . . Had some good times in Mr. Shook's English and sociology classes . . . Does not believe in dating steady . . . As time goes on, he hopes to become a store manager.

BILL OSTRANDER . . . Bill was one of the husky lads who saw plenty of action last fall on the football team. He played guard. Known for his quietness and intestinal fortitude . . . This quietness carried into the classroom . . . Really a very nice guy . . . Liked basketball and particularly the Musky-Bulldog tangle in the '45 finals . . . Lettered in football in '45 and '46 and in track in '46 . . . Bill could be recognized by his walk.

EDWARD MILLETT . . . Ed was one of M. H. S.'s finest singers. He was a mainstay in mixed chorus and was really enthusiastic about that organization's part in the "Messiah" in 1943 . . . Ed also found time to be quite a basketball fan, especially remembering the '45 state runner-up squad . . . He liked downtown pep meetings and girls who were easy to talk to . . . Nothing would please him more than a million dollars and a fishing trip.

EDWARD MOLIS . . . The senior class had just one Vurpo, but what a Vurpo he was . . . Husky, handsome, and hard man to catch, Ed was often seen giving both girls and opposing tacklers the brush-off . . . A stellar fullback, star pole vaulter, and an accomplished chemist, Ed was definitely an asset to the school . . . Vurpo liked to drink chocolate milk on Hi-Y stags and particularly loathed wise-crackers . . . Plans to attend college.

BETTY MILLS . . . Millsie hasn't much height, but she makes up for it with a lively personality and an ability to make friends with her quick wit . . . Spent her sixth periods working in the office . . . Dramatics was her favorite activity, and the 1946 Fun Festival her special memory . . . Always wears a big smile . . . Her future plans include nurse's training and a job as a nurse . . . She is proud of the Muskies' Little Six trophies.

CLAYTON PATTERSON . . . Pat was one of the veterans who took their places in the '47 class after service with Uncle Sam . . . Although he was too old to compete this year, Smoky was one of the football team's strongest backers and found a real thrill in Ralph Warren's scoring activities on the end-around play . . . The friendly attitude of fellow students impressed him . . . Was a Hi-Y tray pusher . . . Plans on M. J. C.

JACK NICKERSON . . . Nick has blue eyes and brown hair and a way with women—what more can a fellow want? . . . Lefty was an actor on Miss Lingo's list of bests and had much fun on and off the stage . . . He is another student who appreciated Gus Shook's English classes . . . Jack plans to study electrical engineering at Iowa State College . . . On his list of best-loved pastimes is watching the Musky hoopsters.

JIM PROFFITT . . . J. R. thrilled Musky spectators with frequent long shots in his years at the forward post . . . His greatest thrills came when the Musky squad became Little Six co-champs . . . Jeanne Oberhaus was his special special friend in his senior year. Frequently J. R. relied on Jeanne for guide service through the halls . . . His classmates were generally wondering what would come next in the way of bright remarks.

GENE PAETZ . . . Chosen representative senior boy was green-eyed, brown-haired Cap . . . His prowess in basketball gained for him the honor of captain . . . He also was freshman president, senior vice-president, and a delegate to Boys' State . . . Socially, Gene was seldom ever seen minus his better half, Joan Sywassink . . . He, too, was a Hi-Y man, but he missed meetings because of bottle-swabbing duties in the cafeteria.

RALPH PROFFITT . . . Squzzy is a handsome lad about five feet nine, with brown hair and blue eyes . . . Ralph lettered in both football and basketball in his junior year . . . Joined Navy in senior year . . . Returned to M. H. S. and filled the shoes he vacated as right halfback on Muscatine's co-champ team . . . Squzzy was not only popular with the boys of M. H. S., but was also the hero of quite a number of girls.

SHERWOOD PHILLIPS . . . Sherb was that rugged, dependable center on the basketball team for three years. He got many thrills out of the game, but the '45 state tournament stands out in his mind . . . Sonny also took the hurdles in track and beat a big drum in band . . . Claims he doesn't know a thing about dating, but he can learn . . . In the future, Sherb plans to settle down on a Montana ranch, where he can enjoy life.

NORMA ROSENBERG . . . Another eager beaver when it came to working in the office, Norma spent many study halls doing her bit to help keep the school ticking . . . Found time to slave over debate . . . Her slaving paid off with major letter, N. F. L., and Speech Arts membership . . . School in general and senior year in particular held many of Norm's favorite experiences . . . Norma can't decide between M. J. C. and S. U. I.

MARILYN LOUISE REED . . . Lyn is a very pretty girl with "bee-yutiful" eyes . . . She enjoyed the Ottumwa games for more than one reason—the other being Bob Ask, with whom she goes steady. He's from Ottumwa . . . Gal spent her sixth periods in the stage crew furnishings department . . . Will go on to Penn College because it is her church college, and Bob will be there too . . . She was proud of going to M. H. S.

NORMAN ERNEST SCHWEITZER . . . Norm was one of the strong backers in football and basketball, his two favorite sports . . . He expressed pride not only in the splendid Musky teams but also in the coaches . . . Venerable (he says it means smart) was also a strong supporter of the training and discipline gained in M. H. S. . . . He hopes to trot off to school in the future and study to become a doctor.

DARLENE RIEKE . . . Deanie's beautiful alto voice never tired of singing for the chorus of M. H. S. . . . In connection with this activity she especially enjoyed the trip to the music festival in Ft. Madison . . . Only in times of dire distress would she miss a basketball game . . . Darlene plans to attend Muscatine Junior College next year . . . Her beautiful brown eyes and hair contributed to making her a lovely queen attendant.

RONALD ROBERTS . . . Ronald left M. H. S. in the spring of '42 and answered Uncle Sam's call . . . In October of '44 he boarded the Queen Mary, which was Europe bound . . . He was in the Army three years doing teletype maintenance in Service Supply Headquarters, first in England and then in France . . . Ronald also had a siege as a popular M. P. . . . He returned to the U. S. on February 11, '46, and later to a civilian role.

BEVERLY SHIELD . . . A gal with dark brown hair and sparkling brown eyes is Bev . . . "Oh Gosh" is probably uttered by this fun-loving senior more than any other expression . . . A grilled cheese sandwich and a coke are Bev's idea of a swell appetite appeaser . . . She enjoys skating and can hold her own with the best . . . A hospital job during part of her senior year kindled in Bev a yen to be a nurse . . . Dates frequently.

GENE SINDT . . . Gene enjoyed Musky assemblies—claimed he had a job, watching and listening . . . Gene's another basketball fan who thinks Musky teams second to none . . . Muscatine High School's athletic system is tops in Gene's estimation . . . He has hopes of attending college, but hasn't decided what college he'll attend . . . His special memories will consist of the many good times he had in all four years at M. H. S.

DARLENE SIZEK . . . Slender, dark, one of the pretty seniors, usually seen with Lyle Meyer or strutting in front of the band. Remember Dee? . . . Says her most pleasant memory of high school life will be graduation . . . She was loyal to the band for four years. Enjoyed the band trip to Ottumwa . . . Dee is very proud of the Muskies' b-i-g beautiful gym . . . No college for her. She won't divulge her dreams of future happiness.

BERTIE LOU SMITH . . . Bertie Lou is, probably, the owner of the most unusual name in the senior class . . . Cricket is a small brunette whose quick movements explain her odd nickname . . . Got a kick out of helping many Musky students locate books in the library while fulfilling her role of an assistant librarian . . . As a memory of the past, Mike's junior year rates as best . . . She dreams of owning a beauty shop.

MARJORIE EVELYN SMULL . . . A happy-go-lucky gal who enjoyed M. H. S. assemblies most in her high school life. Constantly seen with Bob Hopkins, to whom she is engaged . . . Belonged to F. H. A. . . . Loved to meet people and have fun . . . Future plans include living in a small white bungalow with a picket fence around it . . . Marjorie liked sports. Consequently, gym class was a favorite in her school day.

BERNARD SHANNON . . . Buzz was one of the vets to graduate with the class of '47 . . . He enjoyed sports at M. H. S., football most of all . . . He won't soon forget the time he and his car suffered a jolt against a Washington, Iowa, curb . . . Bernie thinks M. H. S. sportsmanship is swell and should be preserved . . . He claims to have happy visions of owning a '47 Mercury . . . Tough luck, gals! Here's a man who doesn't date!

ED ROHDE . . . Basketball was the favorite activity of this senior . . . Somewhat girl shy, he preferred to spend his spare time hunting and working on his car . . . Ed began his Navy training at Farragut, Idaho, in September, 1944 . . . Later he transferred to Bremerton, Washington, for further training before receiving his F. P. O. address . . . After he completed requirements for graduation Ed went to Bettendorf to begin work

BEULAH ROHR . . . Much fun was added to the stage crew when a gal named Beulah came here from Alexis, Illinois . . . The size of the M. H. S. building gave Beulah cold feet at first . . . The excitement before curtain time on the night of a play was a thrilling experience for Beulah . . . The fun she had at Thesplan meetings, the activities of Hi-Tri, and being a senior were crowning points of school life . . . Steady, Bob Varney.

MYRLE SCHAFER . . . Myrt's attentions are centered on a certain Dick from Columbus Junction . . . Perhaps this fact fits in with her future dreams of being a farmer's wife . . . Dimples belonged to F. H. A. and served the club as historian . . . Myrle thinks hayrack rides were a wonderful invention, especially those sponsored by F. F. A. . . . Becoming an alumna of M. H. S. and seeing the Musky-Burlington games were tops to her.

MARJORIE SHOULTZ . . . No complaints will be uttered by Mike providing she owns a shiny new car in the near future and swaps her alarm clock for a rooster someday (a certain farmer's rooster) . . . Marjorie is a gal who enjoys her classes. Gus Shook's English class provided the most fun . . . Mike adds her vote of pride in the basketball team to the long list. The exciting games will leave a vivid picture in her mind.

JOHN SCHENKEL . . . John claims two nicknames: Blondie and Gloomy Gus . . . Blue eyes, a beautiful complexion, blond hair, and five feet eleven all add up to a handsome chap . . . Being with all the boys will comprise John's most pleasant memories of high school days . . . He enjoyed the gang at Hi-Y in their discussions, serious and otherwise, at lunch meetings . . . Being a good butcher will satisfy John's dreams of success.

THELMA SNYDER . . . Participating in sports and watching them make up many of Thelma's happiest high school memories . . . As a member of G. A. A., she shared in the fun of the overnight hike to Rotary Hut . . . She'll never forget the exciting climax to the Ottumwa-Musky tournament game in '45 . . . Thelma much prefers M. H. S. to Chicago schools . . . She's on the membership lists of F. H. A. and Commercial Club.

WANDA SWICK . . . Vim, vigor, and vitality are characteristics of which Wanda has a generous share . . . Swicky used up much of her excess pep at G. A. A. and could play with the best of them . . . When a freshman, Wanda went on a hike to Hill Crest Camp, and she still claims it as her happiest memory . . . She'll always remember graduating . . . Has plans to be a gym instructor . . . Muskies are familiar with her grin.

MARY ANN SYLVESTER . . . Mary Ann used the yells she learned while a member of Pep Club to good advantage at the basketball games . . . If her hopes of a jaunt to sunny California pan out, she'll take with her fond memories of graduation and the M. H. S. school building . . . Her charming smile and the enjoyment she gets from meeting people made her a valuable usherette . . . Learned to pound a typewriter.

LOIS STUMME . . . Everyone should remember Lois, class salutatorian . . . She proved herself an actress in "Ghost Wanted." Lois loved the excitement connected with the play . . . She thinks all M. H. S. students should appreciate the activity ticket system . . . She came to M. H. S. from Ottumwa by way of Strawberry Point. Perhaps this fact accounts for her special interest in the Ottumwa games . . . Thespians and Glee Club.

JOAN SYWASSINK . . . Muskies awarded Joanie Sy their highest honors—representative senior girl and homecoming queen . . . Although being editor of the 1947 yearbook kept Sy busy, she found time to keep an eye on Captain Paetz . . . Jo received Quill and Scroll honors and played a leading role in three years of cheerleading . . . She was secretary-treasurer of her senior class . . . Iowa University is on her schedule.

WILBERT THOMAS . . . Wibbs could often be found in the mixed chorus room holding down his end of the tenor section . . . Another rabid Musky basketball fan, he will never forget the state tournament of '45 . . . He thinks the M. H. S. gym and auditorium are definitely OK . . . He plans to attend S. U. I. and then sell insurance . . . A nice Buick convertible and a trip around the world would satisfy his dreams.

WILMA SCHIRMER . . . In the day-dreams department Wilma has visions of traveling around the world, with a Hollywood stop to collect a few autographs . . . She's proud of Muscatine's coming out on top in almost everything . . . One of her favorites was Miss Harries' merchandise class . . . Shorty got her biggest thrill out of seeing M. H. S. beat Ottumwa . . . Wilma enjoyed chorus, especially on those popular trips.

DARRELL SHARAR . . . Spook was that energetic boy that used his head in order to save his back . . . He had one of the best personalities in M. H. S. when one came to know him. He was always full of cheer and good for a laugh . . . Darrell enjoyed participating in sports during his senior year, and he made a dependable football and basketball player . . . Spook says that he would like nothing better than to coach.

LEROY SPAULDING . . . Leroy was a short, black-haired boy who never tired of Christmas or spring vacation . . . When in school, he liked Mr. Hoopes and his ag course, and for entertainment he liked a good hard-fought basketball game . . . He'll never forget the '45 state tournament or the great Musky team that season . . . Leroy doesn't plan to go to college, but a 1947 Buick in his garage would be his dream come true.

WAYNE STUMME . . . Wayne came to M. H. S. from Strawberry Point in his sophomore year . . . Plans to go to Wartburg College . . . This blond enjoyed track, chiefly, he says, because he got out of sixth period study hall . . . He likes basketball and is proud of the Musky team . . . Wayne was a member of the Auroran staff . . . Enjoyed arguing with Mr. Shook in sociology class . . . Wayne will remember graduation.

RICHARD THOMAS . . . Breezy was one of the unsung heroes of the Musky football line, and in this activity lie his greatest thrills. Being one of the Little Six co-champs and earning two letters are special memories . . . He was also a stalwart basketball fan and a distance man in track . . . He displayed dignity and decorum as Hi-Y president, and attended regular F. F. A. meetings . . . Thelma Sorrells was his steady.

CARL TIECKE . . . Although Doc played left end football slot in his sophomore year, he's glad he was on the bench because "we got slaughtered" . . . For some unknown reason Abe will never forget the latter part of December 7, 1945 . . . He is proud of the beautiful basketball court as compared with those of other Little Six towns . . . Carl has his best times dating "my girl, D. H." . . . Dreams of limitless duck hunting.

IRMA TRADER . . . "Number please" will be two well used words in Wormy's vocabulary if her future follows her present plans . . . A cute little brown-eyed miss with a sweet smile, Irma very often came up with correct answers in class . . . She could frequently be seen going to Jefferson gym with Betty Varney to attend the meetings of G. A. A. . . . Irma spent some sixth periods plunking away on an Auroran typewriter.

DONALD TIEGE . . . Donnie's favorite was wrestling. He enjoyed getting out of school at 3:00 p. m. to practice . . . All five feet three of him could be seen at many out-of-town games . . . The morning devotions over the P. A. system and good sportsmanship are Donnie's pride and joy in M. H. S. . . . He dreams of owning his own car of any model, "just so it runs" . . . Many Musky fans considered his smile fascinating.

HAROLDYNE TROXEL . . . Trox has a good reason for liking homemaking. She believes it might help . . . Has strange habit of livening up when Pfc. Maxson gets a leave . . . Haroldyne gets homesick easily, but she may venture as far as Davenport to beauty school . . . She enjoyed G. A. A. and basketball . . . Trox names graduating as her biggest high school thrill . . . This attractive brunette would like to marry her Pfc.

ARLENE VAN DYKE . . . Arlene's pretty blue eyes twinkle when she thinks about a certain young man. She's engaged . . . Arlene found homemaking classes especially interesting and homemaking club just loaded with fun . . . She's proud of "our swell basketball teams" . . . Arlene's spending money came from the Muscatine Pearl Works . . . Popcorn and F. H. A. combine to form one of her favorite memories.

RALPH WARREN . . . Ralph is a well-known boy around M. H. S. not only because he's a good guy, but also because he's a good wrestler . . . Lettered in football, went to state meet in wrestling captained Archie's wrestlers . . . Ralph plans to join the Navy this summer and go to college when he gets out . . . Thinks about the greatest honor one can get is being an all-American football player . . . A loyal Hi-Yer.

WANDA WEGGAN . . . Wanda applied the "Go West, young man" slogan to herself last summer and has dreams of a return trip to California some day . . . English VII taught to the tune of Charlie Shook helped make Wanda's senior year her favorite . . . Seldom missed a play or basketball game. She won't forget the state tournament . . . Rainy weather doesn't bother this young miss—her hair is naturally curly.

ROSELLA FAE THURSTON . . . Set number two of senior twins introduces Thirsty . . . A strong advocate of G. A. A., Shorty is all for the cooperation and teamwork this club fosters . . . Credits Amicae with a vote of approval . . . Views our trophy display with shining eyes . . . Squirt would like to be a physical education teacher when she grows up . . . Seeing Muscatine down Davenport and Iowa City delighted her.

ROSETTA MAE THURSTON . . . Thurston number two is another shorty . . . Rosetta grew red hair instead of brown . . . Acquired nickname (Rosie) to match her tresses . . . Would like to be able to set a nurse's cap on said tresses some day . . . Shorty thinks it wonderful the way the teams keep carting trophies home to M. H. S. . . . G. A. A. provided the spirit of friendship and cooperation which Rosie favors.

EARL UMLANDT . . . Earl is a good-natured lad with a mischievous twinkle in his blue eyes . . . Earl made use of his brawn participating in football and lists that sport as his favorite . . . Student backing of the football squad was tops in Earl's estimation . . . The state basketball finals and the football game with Ottumwa are among his most pleasant high school memories . . . Remembers the first day of his freshman year.

WILLIS VALETT . . . Willie transferred to M. H. S. from Athens, Georgia . . . This Georgia peach turned out to be of grade A quality as Willie is a very versatile boy . . . He lettered in football, basketball, and track . . . Liked basketball best and made a very colorful guard . . . He also was vice-president of his class as a junior and belonged to Hi-Y . . . This Musky is good-looking and a good dancer . . . Willie hopes to coach.

PATRICIA VAN ZYLE . . . Always Pat to her friends . . . Liked to sing in chorus. Pat enjoyed taking part in the "Messiah" . . . She liked Future Homemakers' Club because of its homelike atmosphere . . . Pat definitely believes in athletic-minded Muskies . . . She drew her pay check from Montgomery Ward's . . . Pat hopes to have her mail addressed to R. R. 5 before many years. An F. F. A. jacket is one of her favorites.

BETTY JANE VARNEY . . . Fun is spelled G.A.A. to Shorty. A large dose of this fun came with the play-day at Iowa City . . . She chalked down the points as G. A. A. point keeper her junior year and was vice-president her senior year . . . Betty is proud of her G. A. A. letter and pin . . . She found time to earn a chorus letter . . . Betty thinks her senior year and Musky teachers are the source of happy memories.

MARY HELEN WHITELEY . . . M. H. W. became famous initials this year as Mary Helen gave office approval to Muskies' work permits . . . Her job, office secretary, gave her her biggest high school thrill . . . Mary Helen so approves of school that she'll take a teacher's career. She plans to attend M. J. C. next year and then State Teachers College . . . Mary Helen worked on stage crews and also acted. Has three-bar letter.

MARLYN WHITMER . . . Band trips, concerts, and the games hold a heap of pleasant memories for this light-haired lad . . . Whitty is a very fitting name for this senior, for his classmates remember his droll sense of humor, as well as his clean-cut appearance . . . The triumphs of the Musky gridders were thoroughly enjoyed by Marlyn, especially the Burlington thriller . . . Marlyn will be an M. J. C. student next year.

RAYMOND WIETER . . . Bob boasts a stature of five feet nine, with blue eyes and brown hair . . . Enjoyed Shook's English classes most of all . . . Favorite pal was Junior Askam . . . Earned extra cash at Lewis's Grocery . . . Most pleasant memories are graduation and games at Ft. Madison and Ottumwa . . . Shoots a wicked game of pool and gives pin-ball machines a good beating . . . Likes to stay out late, sleep late.

ELLIS WILSON . . . Bell-bottom trousers, six-foot tall, brown hair and blue eyes—this is a description of Ellis between November of 1942 and March of 1946 . . . This lanky lad saw some exciting action as an aerial gunner in the Atlantic and Mediterranean against German U boats . . . On a March day in 1946 it was a happy Ellis who got his discharge . . . He plans to begin college work at junior college in September.

VERNON LARUE . . . Blackie worked hard to earn his much-thought-of football letter. Making trips with the football and track teams will be his most pleasant memories . . . After joining the Army, Vernon finished his schooling in airplane mechanics before going overseas this spring . . . Vernon says he has a definite dislike for girls . . . He thoroughly enjoyed basketball and will always remember the Muskies' going to state tournament.

DON WATSON . . . Doc is a plow-jock who participated in F. F. A. throughout high school . . . Don was a guard on the football team and got a kick out of smearing Ottumwa . . . His most enjoyable class was science in room 203 . . . Doc uses his cute grin when he divulges his future plans—marrying a beautiful blonde with a car and plenty of money . . . His teachers will remember his smiling eyes and pleasant personality.

BOB WELKER . . . Lover no doubt will long be remembered by Musky football fans for his great work in our Little Six co-champ line . . . His most pleasant memory is of the fellows he met while playing football . . . Fats received all-state honorable mention, too. So he should have a good chance at college ball, his greatest dream . . . Washed socks and towels for Musky athletes to finance his dates with Shirlee Bryant.

DARWIN WELKER . . . Red was the other half of the Welker brothers of the senior class . . . He liked to play football, but he was hampered by a lack of weight—Dar gave his brother loyal and vociferous support in the stands . . . Darwin was one of those accomplished English students of Mr. Shook's, and he has a pleasant memory of Room 320 . . . This red head would like to marry a rich woman and have life easy, or so he claims.

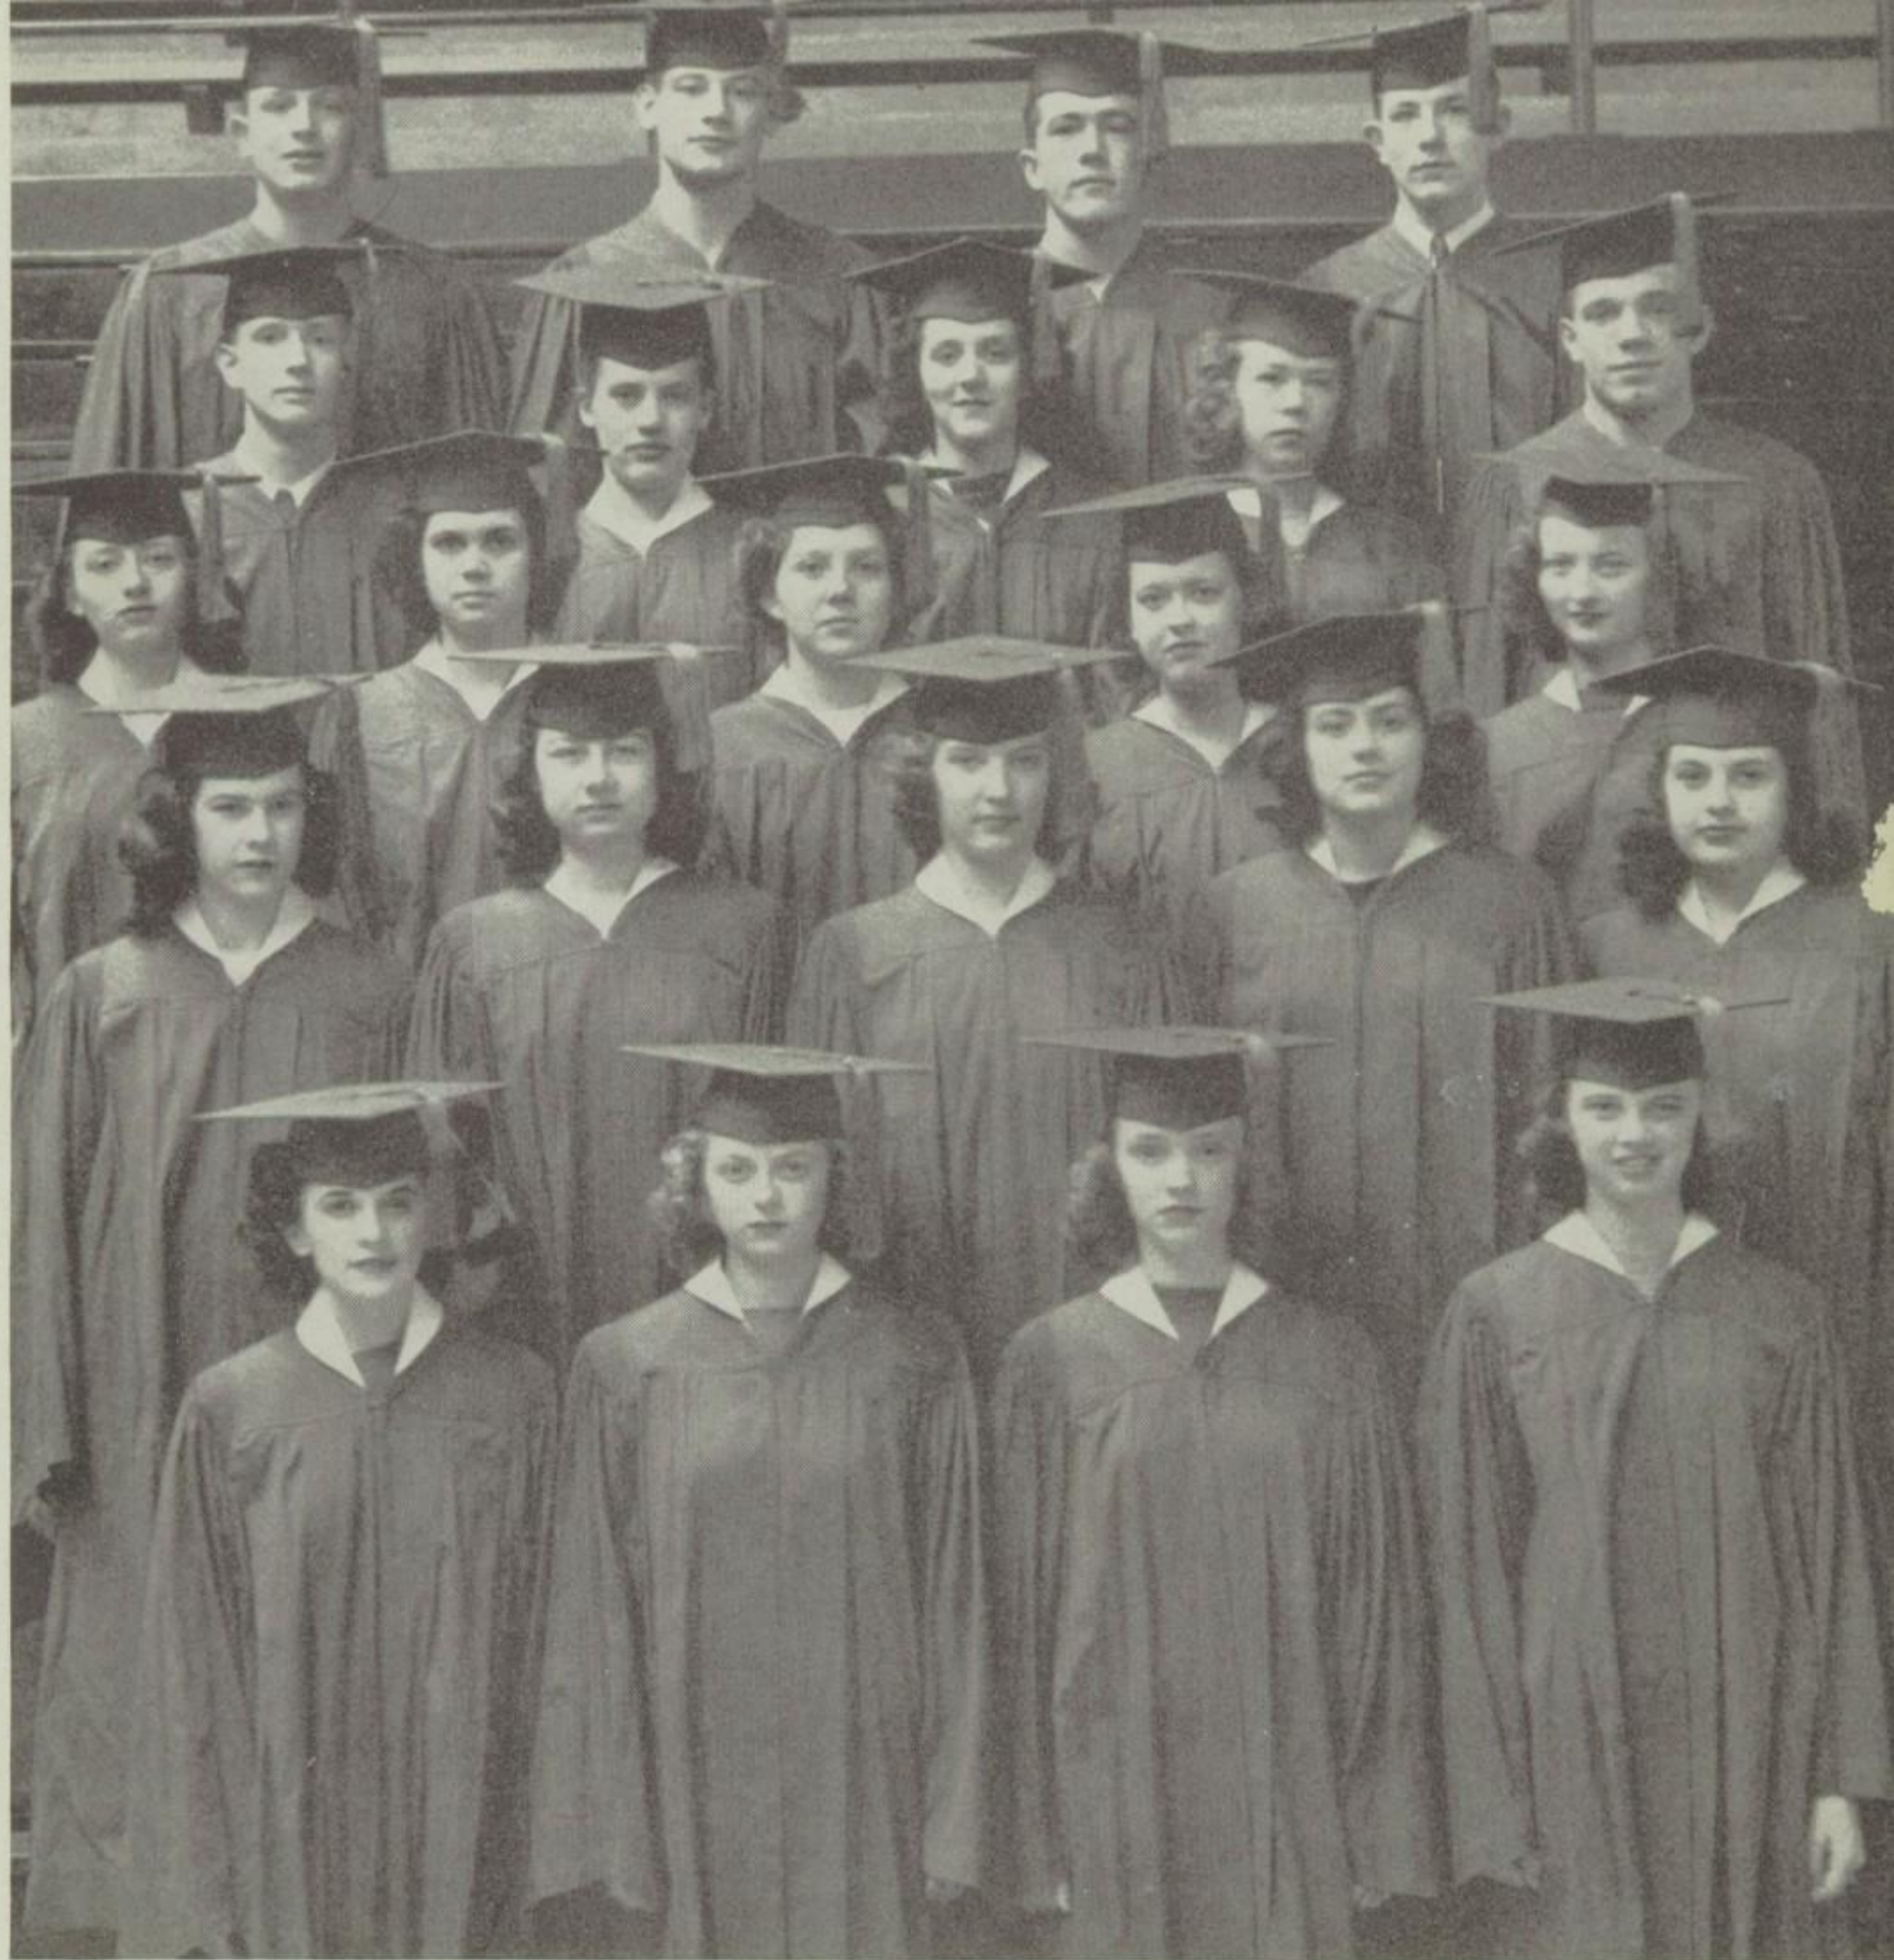

DEAN WELSCH . . . Dean was one of the best-looking boys in the class, and one of the tallest, too . . . He didn't enter into many activities, but he always donated his share of lung power at sports events . . . Basketball holds special memories for Dingo, since he claims to have met the homeliest girl in the world there . . . He was one of Charles Shook's fans, and had the honor of "always first out of 309" . . . Always rushed to class.

Mrs. Jeanne Jahnke (upper left) and Mrs. Mildred Fogarty found a reference humorous. Tom Bruner and Eldon Archambault conferred over mail. Discussing typing papers were (left to right) Miss Caroline Liebke, Miss Veda Cornick, and Miss Kathryn Harries. Miss H. M. Kemble and Miss June Lingo sent orders to operators in the light booth.

Miss Evelyn Schultz (left) and Miss Mary Bielefeld rearranged the homemaking room shelves. Superintendent A. A. Johnson (right) and Robert Galpin, school board president, inspected the damaged P. A. system after the fire. Charles Shook often ran the office switchboard after school, and Miss Louisa Jericho spent many hours over Musky tests.

Here are the persons who kept the office purring. Mrs. Marie Ruthenberg and Mary Helen Whiteley checked Musky attendance while Fred Messenger, principal, stood ready to aid Marinus Jensen (right) with the necessary facts. Mrs. Ruthenberg was office secretary; Mr. Jensen, assistant principal; and Mary Helen, office assistant.

.... Activities

F. H. A. Sponsors Festival, Sends Boxes Overseas

"Toward New Horizons" was the motto that inspired Future Homemakers of America club members to carry on their worthwhile activities. These ambitious girls packed twelve boxes which they sent overseas, sponsored a Christmas festival for some of the needy families in Greece and Norway, and put on their annual Fun Festival. Their regular meetings were also kept interesting by topics of practical use to the eighty-one members. Dressing to fit one's personality and nursery school technique were two of the outstanding lessons.

For the first semester, Mary Ellen Dillon, president; Joyce King, vice-president; Alice Eis, secretary; and Mildred Watts, treasurer, headed the club. During the second semester, Gretchen Guenther, president; Joyce King, vice-president; Angeline Rock, secretary; and JoAnn Dale, treasurer, took over the officers' duties.

Homemakers Discuss Grooming, Food, Homes

HOMEMAKING KING AND QUEEN

Albert Watson and Helen Hallmark reigned over the Fun Festival as King and Queen. Some of the highlights of the festival were a program and a dance.

F. F. A.'s Find Time for Fun in Busy Schedule

Where there are F. F. A. boys there's fun! The many functions of the club made this fact especially true this year, for they had a meeting of all the boys of the school territory, made the trip to the national Future Farmers of America convention at Kansas City, attended the American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City, and had their annual parent-son banquet. Their grain show and their basketball games also added much to the interest of the club.

Directing the club as officers the first semester were Richard Eichelberger, president; Raymond Hetzler, vice-president; Jack Dunbar, secretary; Duane Sywassink, treasurer; Paul Kemper, sergeant at arms; and Ernest Lottman, reporter. Ray Hetzler, president; Duane Sywassink, vice-president; Richard Thomas, secretary; Irving Rexroth, sergeant at arms; and Bill Hoben, reporter, took over these duties as officers the second semester.

Up-and-Coming Greenhands Understudy F.F.A.'s

This busy bunch of boys hustled around in an effort to earn points toward their advancement to the higher rank of the Future Farmers of America. Like his older brothers, the F. F. A. members, every good Greenhand hopes to merit the "State of Iowa Farmer" degree someday. The F. F. A. boys held regular meetings twice each month and stressed cooperative activities among the members. In fact, the club's many social and recreational events stimulated a more friendly relationship. Their familiar blue corduroy jackets were prevalent in M. H. S. halls, and nine times out of ten the wearers of these famed jackets also wore broad grins which illustrated the boys' spirit of friendliness. Lindley B. Hoopes, F. F. A. sponsor, deserves loads of credit for the fine work he has done to fulfill the club's aim: "To develop the farm boy into a stronger rural citizen."

Hi-Tri Boasts Largest Club Membership

Hi-Tri, a Y. W. C. A. club for high school girls, was one of the most active organizations for sophomore, junior, and senior girls. This year a dance honoring the football squad, a style show and tea for Hi-Tri mothers, and an open house two times a month were all activities sponsored by the Hi-Tri girls. The club, which boasted one hundred members, held its meetings at the Y. W. C. A. on the first and third Tuesdays of the month. Besides the regular business discussed at these meetings, the girls also had devotional programs, group singing, panel discussions, and guest speakers. During the second semester a series of good grooming talks was presented to the girls. Club visitors were Miss Mary Culhane, physical education instructor, who gave a talk on "Good Posture," and Bradford Burns, who presented his humorous declamation, "The Widow's Mites."

Y-Teen Club Sponsors Saturday Night Dances

Twice a month the Hi-Tri girls had open house at the Y, affairs which proved to be very successful. The girls also opened a snack bar at these dances. The aim of Hi-Tri is community service and the social and personal development of the girls. Its members carried out their community service by serving at banquets for civic groups. After a lapse of a few years, the familiar black and gold Hi-Tri pins could be seen on the sweaters of many Musky girls (and boys).

Officers for the first semester were Verna Freese, president; Shirley Sulzberger, vice-president; Donna Tobias, secretary; and Charlene Schumacher, treasurer. Officers for the second semester were Thelma Sorrells, president; Twyla Maeglin, vice-president; Darlene Rieke, secretary; and Pat Van Zyle, treasurer. The advisers were Miss Kathryn Harries and Miss Helen Young.

Hi-Y Causes Scarcity for Cafeteria Eaters

The Hi-Y boys really filled up the cafeteria line when they held their Wednesday noon meetings in the Social Room. They boasted sixty-five members. Among the outstanding projects carried out by the boys this year were a minstrel show and a trip to the Silvis shops. The annual stag and a dance were also held early in the fall. The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the community high standards of Christian character.

Officers for the first semester were John Folsom, president; Richard Thomas, vice-president; Don Oeter, secretary; Jack Dunbar, treasurer; Bill Ditch, sergeant at arms; and Earl Cochran, chaplain. Officers for the second semester were Richard Thomas, president; Ralph Warren, vice-president; Bill Ditch, secretary; Ernest Lottman, treasurer; Bob Logel, chaplain; and John Hahn, sergeant at arms.

Amicae Girls Serve Banquets, Fill Treasury

Amicae members chose their name from the Latin word meaning "friends." Although the club, the freshman girls' Y-Teen club, was thought of chiefly as a social organization, it also carried out many other projects. Among these were filling a Thanksgiving Day basket for a needy family, helping to outfit an underprivileged girl for school, and earning money for a camping period this summer by serving at banquets for the Y. W. C. A.

Members of Amicae attended the regular meetings on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month at the Y. W. C. A. Officers for the first semester were Anna Workman, president; Pat Honts, vice-president; Pattie Stark, secretary; and Alice Bently, treasurer. Officers for the second semester were Darlene Naber, president; Barbara Whitmer, vice-president; Margaret Siemers, secretary; and Janet Sywassink, treasurer. Miss Mary Culhane was the club's adviser.

Curia Regia Ranks as Muskies' Oldest Club

Curia Regia's meaning, the royal division, seems a very fitting name for this club. The oldest one at M. H. S., it was organized in 1911. The members, Musky Latin students, enjoyed every third Wednesday when they could skip sixth period study hall to attend the meetings. Highlights of the year included the December initiation and special meeting and the May picnic at Wild Cat Den. Regular business meetings were seldom skipped, however, for besides interesting programs there were refreshments to make things even more interesting.

First semester officers included Pat Zeug, president; Andy Hibbert, vice-president; Donna Eichelberger, secretary; and Phyllis McKeown, treasurer. Second semester officers were Andy Hibbert, president; Marilyn Eichenauer, vice-president; Betty Russell, secretary; and Marcia Fuller, treasurer. Miss Hetty Margaret Kemble was the adviser of this group.

In this episode from "Ghost Wanted" Jean Hakes (seated) and Cecelia Ferguson were unaware of the lurking danger. The danger in the form of a vicious monster was in reality Victor Finkle. Under the direction of Miss June Lingo, the dramatics department presented this play last fall as their annual all-school play.

Actresses, Actors Answer Thespians' Roll

The dramatics club, National Thespian Society, has as its aim the developing of interest in dramatics in high school, and its members worked hard to achieve their goal. Under the direction of Miss Hetty Margaret Kemble and Miss June Lingo, it was this group that assisted in the all-school play, produced two freshman-sophomore plays, presented several small skits, collaborated with the music department in presenting the Fun Festival, and sponsored the contest play, "Torches."

First semester officers were Bonnie Doering, president; Twyla Maeglin, vice-president; Jean Hakes, secretary; Bob Brawner, treasurer; Lois Stumme, troupe reporter; and Clifford Fisher, historian. Second semester officers included Twyla Maeglin, president; Marlin Beckey, vice-president; Jim Gundrum, secretary; Carla Fry, treasurer; Francene Glatstein, troupe reporter; and Virginia Havercamp, historian.

FIRST ROW: Betty Russell, Marcia Wagner, Bettie Lou Ross, Eloise Davison, Dolores Davis, Jeanne Oberhaus, Cecelia Ferguson. SECOND ROW: Beulah Rohr, Mary Esther Hocke, Phyllis Brookhart, Carla Fry, Francene Glatstein, Bonnie Willits, Joanne Dutton, Alice Eis. THIRD ROW: Virginia Havercamp, Rosalie Hutt, Betty Mills, Twyla Maeglin, Esther Archer, Betty Drumm, Bonnie Doering, Mary Helen Whiteley. FOURTH ROW: Lois Stumme, Jean Hakes, Martha Kemper, Don Lindle, Clifford Fisher, Maynard Eckhardt, Don Marine, Billy Jacobs. FIFTH ROW: Victor Finkle, Bob Brawner, Jim Gundrum, Dick Hubble, Bradford Burns, Gregory Beitz, Marlin Beckey, Jack Nickerson.

Debaters, Speakers Form N. F. L. Membership

Musky speech participants brought home many honors this year from their various tournaments. Early in the year Bob Evans and Doris Crow were named top boy and girl speakers at the Coe College invitational tournament, and the B Squad debaters won fourth place at the Augustana College invitational tournament among A Squad competition. Among the speech activities participated in this year were debate, declamation, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and radio speaking. A Squad debaters were Bob Highbarger, Doris Crow, Bob Evans, and Loren Goss.

For the first time in several years the National Forensic League held regular meetings in room 324 during the sixth period. The purpose of N. F. L. is to promote an interest in speech. Officers for the year were Bob Highbarger, president; Bob Evans, vice-president; Loren Goss, treasurer; and Doris Crow, secretary. Miss Bonnie White was the speech adviser.

Band Lends Color, Excitement to Activities

Under the direction of Harold Freese, the members of the band worked hard sixth periods to prepare for their much enjoyed appearances. Some of the outstanding occasions were the Little Six Band Festival and the spring concert. Perhaps the most enjoyed by the band members were the two trips to Ottumwa for the Centennial Celebration and the football game. Of course, they were on hand at the home games to add their color and pep to the Muskies' string of victories.

Choruses' Melodies Brighten Muskies' Days

The vocally inclined high school students of Muscatine employed their talents as members of the M. H. S. music organizations, glee club and mixed chorus. Besides performing for the student body at several special assemblies, chorus members spent many sixth periods rehearsing for the very successful music festivals—the County Festival in March and the Spring Festival and Little Six Festival in April and May. At the latter a massed chorus of 500 voices from the Little Six schools gave an evening concert in the fieldhouse. Lloyd Oakland of Cornell was guest conductor. Max Risinger left M. H. S. in January and Mrs. Harold Freese took over.

There was no telling what Auroran staff members might be found doing next. Above, Joan Sywassink (left) and Mary Johnson were engrossed in mounting Auroran pictures. Counting money kept Thelma Sorrells busy. In Muscatine physically, in Minnesota mentally, described Mary Hocke as she wrote to Bob. Desire for variety for the sports page sent Bob Evans on a cut-hunting expedition. On the opposite page, Sallie Stark and Bev Borgstadt puzzled over the news page dummy. Dick Jahnke found his dog a valuable study companion, but Francene Glatstein, a Cub who helped the staff with ad sales, preferred a piece of celery with her book. Brad Burns (left) and George Webster had a brain session over the Pepper Shaker. John Folsom demonstrated how to use a puppet.

Completed Copy Brings Happy Days for Staff

The Auroran office was the scene of constant hustle and bustle. Cries such as "Where's my dummy?" "Is that copy typed yet?" and "Are both typewriters being used?" could be heard by anyone passing by the Auroran office during the sixth period or after school. The yearbook caused many anxious moments during the year. All copy had to be at the printers' by April first, and there were many times when everyone connected with the publication of the book held his breath, crossed his fingers, and hoped the deadline could be met. Members from the last year's journalism class edited the bi-weekly, assisted by members of this year's journalism class.

Joan Sywassink, with Mary Ann Johnson as senior assistant, managed the yearbook publication, and Sallie Stark managed the newspaper staff. Barbara Meerdink and Thelma Sorrells were business managers, and John Folsom supervised ad sales.

QUILL and SCROLL

The Neighbor's House

Our neighbor's is an oldish house
... a wide, white house
    set on the hill
where shades are rarely drawn
... so that the lights
    seep out and the dawns creep in and shadows climb up on the pines and hide in the upstairs halls.

Theirs is a quiet house
... over and above the laughing and the scuffling
you can hear ...
    the crackling of the fires
    on many hearths
and the purring of big kettles on the stove ...

Theirs is a hungry house where apple bowls and trenchers filled with nuts —
and plates of cheese and bread and meat and milk
and opened pickle jars are everywhere in evidence ...

And even in the bedrooms
... little bags of private sweets are hidden under the pillows out of sight ...
in case ... one should wake hungry
in the night.

In homes where good food and good living are the rule, the name of H. J. Heinz Company and the flavor of Heinz 57 Varieties are well known and much admired.
